Humility, oh what a virtue to have! I was reminded this week of the Scripture out of Galatians 6:3, 'For if anyone thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. This is something that I have prayed for over the years that I did not want to be deceived. Deception is so easy to fall for and Satan is the father of all deception and many times we fall for his lies and we do not even realize it. Deception is a lie that we believe is the truth. Always check out what you are believing against the Word of God, His Word is always TRUTH! Jon 17:17. I am so thankful that we have a guideline that will keep us on the right track to where we can walk in truth! Selah!
