As we celebrate Easter this week so many times we do not really look or think about the horrific price that He paid for our Salvation. They pulled His beard out by the roots, they beat Him unmercifully until His back was open flesh,; not one spot of His body was not covered with the blood...That blood was for you and me. But Jesus said John 10:18 (AMP) No one takes it away from Me. On the contrary, I lay it down voluntarily. [I put it from Myself.] I am authorized and have power to lay it down (to resign it) and I am authorized and have power to take it back again. These are the instructions (orders) which I have received [as My charge] from My Father. His love for us overshadowed the pain. Such love! Such compassion! May we all strive to walk and live in the same attitude as Jesus did. Hallelujah what a Savior
