

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

It was necessary that Emmanuel, “God-with-us”, comes to the world into a family and into a couple (male and female) in which love is king. Mary and Joseph were two people who love each other, not with a selfish love, but a love that is open to God. The beautiful love between Mary and Joseph came close to a dramatic end. Mary is found with a child by the Power of The Holy Spirit. Joseph, a just and honest man, decides to be separated from her. Normally, according to their tradition, he should have denounced her, and she could have been killed by stoning. Let’s use all our imagination here to think about what both Mary and Joseph went through. It’s just not HUMANLY acceptable (anger, accusation, suspicion, disappointment, etc...). Only God and God only could bring illumination to this situation. God did it, by sending an Angel to Joseph. During these upcoming days of Jesus’s birth (“And The Word Became Flesh”), let’s be united in spirit to Mary, The Virgin Mother, to Joseph, the adoptive father, and to The Holy Spirit without whom nothing is possible.
