

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The people who sit in darkness have seen a great Light, and those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death. Light has arisen”. This quotation from the prophet Isaiah that St Matthew pins down, shows that God has revealed Himself to those who ignored Him or those who didn’t know Him. Who among us doesn’t like light? Who among us prefers to live in the shadow or in the darkness, with all windows and doors locked. NOBODY. At all times in the history of mankind people are afraid of the darkness, people are afraid of the night. And rightly so. Jesus comes to the world as a Light. He is God made man without losing His divinity. This is the way He shows His light, first to the disciples. Then to us. On two different occasions, He sees two siblings and says to them: “Come”. And they followed Him. For more than two thousand years, He is saying to each one of us now and today “Come”. Are there people who don’t like light? Are there people who prefer darkness? Unfortunately, yes. Today’s gospel is about the calling of four disciples, which means that Jesus is calling us too.

WELCOME

With great joy we welcome this weekend at all our Parishes Fr. Frank Pauselli. Fr. Pauselli is Pastor Emeritus for Divine Mercy Parish and will celebrate the weekend’s liturgy in our Parishes. Let’s make Father Pauselli feel welcome.

THANK YOU LETTER FROM ST. JOSEPH’S CENTER

Here is the thank you letter for our generous donations in the October baby item collection organized by SML.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your very generous donation of 459 diapers, 27 accessories, 65 pieces of clothing, baby food and wipes for St. Joseph’s Center Baby and Children’s Pantry. We continue to serve over 300 families each month. We are so grateful for your continued support and the difference we make together in our community and the lives of others.

At Saint Joseph’s Center, we value you among our greatest blessings. May God grant you and your family Peace throughout the New Year. You and your family are remembered in the prayers of the IHM Sisters and a monthly Mass at the IHM Center.

Thank you again for choosing to donate to St. Joseph’s Center Baby and Children’s Pantry.

Sincerely,

Tamara Hall, MEd

Director, Maternity & Family Services
