

Pie baking Contest Rules & Regulations

Calling All Bakers. Showcase your baking skills and creativity

Newberrytown Special Events

May 4th 2025

Newberry Commons Shopping Ctr

- Check In - 1:30 pm (booth areas must be set up by 1:30)
Tasting - 2:00pm
Voting - 3:30 pm
Awards Ceremony - 4:00pm

Any questions, please contact us –
events@newberrytown.com

Please pre-register - forms are available at www.newberry.com special events tab.

Contest rules –

- $10.00 Entry fee – all residences, taxpayers, any age, may participate (no commercial bakers)
- Pie baker must be present during the contest.
- Must have enough pies to serve 100 taste testers – 2oz servings - 3 pie Minium is suggested
- To enter - fill out registration form - @ Newberrytown.com – Special events tab
- Pies must not require refrigeration before serving and may not contain raw, uncooked eggs. No custard, meringue, cream cheese, egg or cream-based pies or whipped cream.
- Fruit pies that contain following fruit – apple, apricot, blackberry, blueberry, boysenberry, cherry, cranberry, nectarine, peach, plum, strawberry, grape, quince, orange, tangerine, red current, or a combination of these fruits.
- Disposable pie dishes are recommended.
- Napkins, Forks and 2oz cups will be supplied by the Special Events Committee for size consistency.

Judging – People’s choice system

- Judging will begin at 2:00, 3:30 voting ends, winners announced at 4:00
- Bakers must remain at their booth during tasting and judging.
- Judging will be conducted by 100 taste testers and a ticket will be dropped in a jar.
- Placing a ticket in a jar labeled Baker’s Name and tallying the total will determine the winners.

1st, 2nd, 3rd place ribbons. $ 100.00 1st $ 50.00 2nd $ 25.00 3rd cash prizes

- Votes will be tallied at a designated voting area

Special Notes –

Please consider the lighthearted intent of the day – and accept the final decisions of the Judges

Each participant will need their own table, chairs, etc. Booth spaces will be assigned in contest area

ENJOY the day with neighbors and friends - we look forward to seeing you!