New show "Comic Mafia" to start shooting this October

2020-03-07

Lewes DE: From his home in Lewes, De. Executive Producer Jiovani announced that filming for his new show "Comic Mafia" will begin this October in Las Vegas, NV.

Comic Mafia is a scripted reality show unlike ANYTHING on Television now! Comic Mafia, filming in Las Vegas, is a show that follows 5 Biker Comics and the adventures, antics, and struggles on the road between their Stand-Up shows. Jiovani said "The show is not so much focused on the actual Comedy shows as it is on the journey, adventures and troubles that come with being on the road."

Comic Mafia takes direct aim, and puts a "hit" on political correctness, and is guaranteed to offend some viewers. Jiovani went on to say, "As a Comic myself, I get so pissed off at other Comics that apologize for a joke they did because someone was offended! Comic Mafia will offer no apologies!" This show is full of talent, including Emmy nominated Director Jeff Stitzel, Ron Furguson, and Renee De Herrera writers on the LAFA award winner for best comedy "Unfit". There are numerous other Celebrities slated to do Cameo appearances, (The list is under tight wraps) Comic Mafia is going to be the new trend in Reality TV.

Jiovani said "We are finishing up development, and already have tens of thousands of fans in over 91 countries, and that tells me the world is ready for something different!"
