Make your check payable to Newcomers & Old Friends Club. Please send your check and this completed form to the address above or deliver in person at the General Meeting.

Our Club is a non-profit, social organization that encourages new friendships through shared activities. The General membership meets monthly. Our monthly newsletter details Special Interest Groups that meet throughout the month. As a new member, we encourage you to review our newsletter to see if there is a group whose activities are of interest to you. To join one of our existing Special Interest Groups or obtain more details about the group, contact the Chairperson of that group. You may join as many Special Interest Groups as you like.

Welcome to the Newcomers & Old Friends Club! We are so glad you joined!
