Ridgefield Forest Fair

Tiny Garden Contest & Tiny Parade

Saturday, August 6th 2022

11:00 am

OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

YOU, are invited to plant, decorate and enter a tiny garden of your own in our contest. Plant and decorate a portable tiny garden of any kind or theme, be it a dish garden/tea cup garden/ super hero garden or fairy garden, etc., bring it to the TINY GARDEN PARADE TENT to register. Pre-registration is encouraged. Your creation must be small enough for YOU to carry or pull in little wagon or cart to bring it to the Fairy Garden or carry/pull in the Tiny Parade. Look online for thousands of ideas. Bucket, old dish pans, sand pails, suitcases, broken pots, tea pots, bird cages, toy trucks, old shoes, boots, etc. can be used as your container. Be creative!

It's a great opportunity for parents & grandparents to introduce the little-ones to the wonders and fun of gardening. Have fun with a theme...Make a Lego garden, nursery rhyme garden, dinosaur garden, etc. Whether or not you have access to digging outdoors, you can still have fun creating a portable tiny garden for your balcony, patio or windowsill. Visit local nurseries, garden centers and even big box stores for mini plants and decoration or make your own decorations. The sky is the limit. It's all free

Tiny Parade OPEN TO THE PUBLIC! Help us kick off the Ridgefield Forest Fair's 'Tiny Garden Contest and Tiny Parade'! Boys and girls, moms and dads, grandmas and grandpas—Dress up the wee ones; decorate the stroller or wagon...Fairies, Gnomes, Dragons and Superheros welcome! Join the Princess of the Fairies and her sprites to kick off the Ridgefield Forest Fair's 'Tiny Garden Contest and Tiny Parade'. The Tiny Parade starts at 11 a.m. August 6th at Abrams Park. Tiny Gardens open for viewing 12-4
