

Together In Faith

<https://cypresscowboychurch.com>

Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations

Knowing God—truly understanding His nature—comes through time, relationship, and presence, not just knowledge or ritual.

A Reflection on Last Sunday's Word

Seeds of Change: Living the Great Commission

True transformation begins with change. When Jesus calls us, He doesn't leave us as we are—He moves us in new directions, challenges old ways, and invites us into a new life rooted in Him.

To become a seed of change means allowing God to plant His Word deep within you, so that you grow, bear fruit, and impact others. Seeds may look small, but they hold the power to transform entire landscapes when they take root.

"Change does not happen by haphazard events... everything is for a purpose."

In the Kingdom of God, nothing is random. Every shift, challenge, delay, or redirection is part of a greater design. Even when you can't see the full picture, God is intentionally working to bring about His purpose in your life.

Transformation isn't just about changing what you do—it starts with who you are.

God works from the inside out, renewing your mind, healing your heart, and reshaping your desires.

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind..." —Romans 12:2

When that internal change takes root, it manifests outwardly—in your choices, your relationships, and your calling.
