

Vigil, Sunday June 27

Remember the Trooper/Police Killing of Mubarak Soulemene

7 p.m. Sunday 6/27

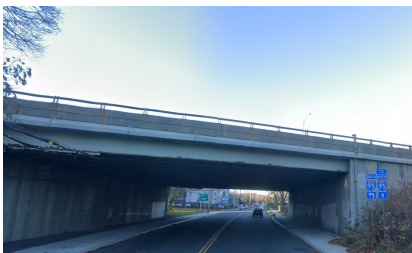

at the site where he was shot seven times, under the highway at exit 43 of I-95

Set your GPS to 820 Campbell Avenue in West Haven

Candles will be lit in his honor

- Mubarak was gunned down by a State Trooper with 7 shots
- Mubarak was in a car surrounded by police cars. His windows were up. He was a threat to no one.
- There was no reason to draw guns on him
- A West Haven undercover policeman smashed the passenger-side window
- A taser was shot at him. Seconds later he was killed by live fire
- State's Attorney Gailor has not indicted anyone. It's been 17 months.
- Neither Governor Lamont, nor any state or city official has said any police officer did anything wrong

Vigil site:

Sponsors: Justice for Mubarak, Black Lives Matter (national), Promoting Enduring Peace, Jewish Voice for Peace (New Haven), Black Alliance for Just Immigration, West Haven Black Coalition, Justice for Steven Barrier, Justice for Jayson

See WestHavenCall.com for the latest