

March to Protest Police Killing of Mubarak Soulemene

On January 15 Marbarak Soulemene was surrounded by four or five police cars at the bottom of Exit 43 on I-95. He was ordered out of the car. The car he was in was stopped. He had no place to go. Yet within 15 seconds a police officer smashed in a passenger side window. 15 or 20 seconds after that a CT State Trooper shot him seven times and he died.

Protest the killing of Soulemene and the involvement of West Haven police in this incredibly aggressive and hasty action.

Next Friday, February 21

4:30

March to the West Haven police station.
