From Your President

Spring! The daffodils and hyacinths are up, the weather has been warmer and show season is starting! I hope you are all getting out with your horses to ride, train, and bond. Make sure you share your show results so we can publish them in the newsletter — and that you get credit for 2021 end of year awards!

Even though many folks are getting vaccinated, the pandemic still affects having our monthly meetings at a restaurant. Our monthly meeting for March was held via Zoom and in person at Fleet Foot Farm, Melissa (The Barn Fairy) Morehead's place. Melissa has again offered Fleet Foot Farm for our April meeting, April 13. Everyone is invited to join us either in person or via Zoom. If you have not used Zoom before, we can help you use it. Julie Hall will send out the Zoom invites around April 5 and again April 12 to remind you. I'd like to see you at our monthly meeting in person or virtually!

You should be receiving the E-vite for our annual banquet Friday, April 9, shortly. It will be at Buddy's Banquet Hall on Kingston Pike. Please answer your E-vite, and let us know how many intend to attend the banquet. Meals will again be $25 per meal. If you have questions, call Jean at 865-986-9014.

Like last year, Coy Jo has offered to put up our pictures in a slide show for the banquet. Be sure to send your 2020 pictures to her by April 2 (extended from previous date) so she can get this together for us. Send your pictures to coyjbays@gmail.com. If you have gently used tack or riding clothes, bring them to the auction. Ask your farrier, riding instructor, and vet for donations of services. These auction items help pay for our awards!

CDCTS is your club and I would like to see more members involved. If you have ideas for consortiums, seminars, clinics etc., let us know how we can work together to make them happen and support them.

Kudos to Anne Titus for organizing the Jennifer Roth "S" Judge clinic in June!

Let's have fun in 2021!

Carolyn Ordal,

CDCTS President

Final signatures for the contract to be obtained. The flyer for the newsletter, Facebook and website are in the final stages of edit.
- The committee continues to search for a venue for the fall schooling show.

V. Old Business:

- Jean Sullivan reported the Annual Awards Banquet is still scheduled for Friday, April 9, 2021 at Buddy's BBQ Banquet Center beginning at 6:30 p.m. for Silent Auction viewing. The maximum number of people remains at 40, with Covid restrictions and precautions being observed. If the restrictions are changed, the number of people could possibly be increased to 50. The meal will be served at approximately 7:00 p.m. Maria Blackstone has agreed to be the feature speaker (topic - USAWE). Auction items are still needed and those interested in donating items should contact Rita Dunn at piaffe8@gmail.com. Any physical items that remain after the auction is over, will be donated to the Star Tack Sale on Saturday, April 10, 2021. There was discussion of having a virtual auction as well, and Melissa Morehead will explore this further. An email will be sent to all members requesting items for the silent auction.

VI. New Business.

- A discussion was had about future locations in which to hold the monthly meetings. Appreciation was expressed to Melissa Morehead for providing space for the March meeting. Jean Sullivan reported she contacted Carol Mitchell regarding the possibility of having the meetings at Fox Den Community room. After a lengthy discussion, it was agreed that would not be a viable option due to the food requirements and cost. We appreciate Jean and Carol looking into this. There was discussion about having future meetings outside at Fleet Foot Farm as the weather permits. A motion to have the April meeting at Melissa Morehead's Fleet Foot Farm was made by Jean Sullivan and seconded by Susan Michaud.
- A lengthy discussion was had about the CDCTS Facebook page and permitting non-club members to post. It was generally agreed we should explore this further and Julie Noe agreed to look into why there are two Facebook pages and what can be done to correct it.
- In the past the CDCTS trailer with equipment has been housed by Jean Sullivan. Jean will bring the trailer to the May schooling show but needs a new member/volunteer to take responsibility for transporting the trailer to events. There was discussion about mileage reimbursement for this service.
- Carolyn Ordal briefly mentioned an article found in The Connection about handling conflict in your GMO. She suggested the questions posed in the agenda be reflected upon by everyone.

VII. Upcoming Events.

- Jennifer Roth "S" Judge Clinic scheduled for May 29-30, 2021. Only 8 riders per day. The cost will be $155.00 CDCTS members and $170.00 for non-members. Sign up begins May 1, 2021. CDCTS CLUB UPDATE

Congratulations to Linda Glowienka

CDCTS would like to congratulate club member Linda Glowienka for earning her USDF Bronze Medal in 2020. It takes years of hard work and dedication to reach this goal, and we are PROUD of her accomplishment. Especially in the year of Covid!

Congratulations Linda - Job Well Done!

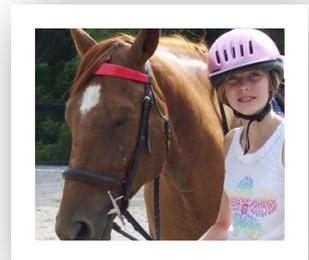

CDCTS Welcomes New Member Alexandra “Allie” Kahl

Allie and her horse, Snoopy, moved to Knoxville last fall, so that Allie can pursue her PhD in Energy Science and Engineering at UTK. Allie began riding when she was 8 years old and started her partnership with Snoopy at age 11. They enjoyed showing hunters and equitation across the Virginia horse show circuit and attending hunter paces.

In college, Allie’s riding interests shifted and she became a proud member of the Virginia Tech Dressage Team. As a member of the Virginia Tech Dressage Team Allie was able to compete against other colleges, learn to ride many different types of horses and participate in the Intercollegiate Dressage Association National Competition. She also spent a summer training in Germany where she completed the first level of the German riding system and learned about the breeding industry.

Allie is thankful to have a horse that is such a diverse and willing partner. Currently, Allie and Snoopy are working toward their USDF Bronze Medal and having as much fun as possible along the way. They are enjoying all of the new friends that they have made in Knoxville and CDCTS.

We will be introducing other new CDCTS members in upcoming newsletters.

CDCTS MEMBERS AT SCENIC FLIGHT, MARCH 20-21, 2021

Scenic Flight Dressage Show Series I/II managed by Andrea Davenport Himel was held at Tri-State Exhibition Center in Cleveland, Tn on March 20-21, 2021. CDCTS was well represented by Meg Larson, Anne Titus, Julie Hall, Jean Sullivan, Liz Wagar, Jennifer Milligan Swindle, Melissa Morehead, Allie Kahl, Mattelyn Rogers and Valarie Cheatham.

As part of her series, Andrea offered a USDF GMO Team Challenge, in which teams of 3-4 GMO members competed against each other, with each team member riding their test of choice. CDCTS was able to put together two teams and fought hard against the other local GMO in the Knoxville area. The CDCTS team of Mattelyn Rogers, Melissa Morehead and Allie Kahl put in a valiant effort, and the team of Meg Larson, Anne Titus and Julie Hall, came out victorious! In addition to the beautiful blue-ribbon sashes for each winning team member, CDCTS was awarded $150.00 to be used toward educational purposes for the club.

Due to the generosity of an anonymous donor, Scenic Flight Dressage Show Series I/II was able to award a High Point ribbon to CDCTS members! Mattelyn Rogers won in the Open division and Julie Hall in the Adult Amateur division. Congratulations to both!

CONGRATULATIONS to all the riders!
Thank you Scenic Flight Dressage Series and Andrea!
