From Your President

Spring has officially sprung—hopefully we got the last snow out of the way March 12! Now we just have to deal with April showers! (and the resulting mud!). Reminding you that CDCTS will have a booth at the STAR annual Tack Sale March 26. Please let me know if you have any items to donate or bring them to me at our table.

Are you reading the USDF Connection magazine? Perhaps you will find a new idea or two to incorporate when working your horse. At the recent USEA Instructor Certification Program symposium in Ocala, several ICP instructors gave tips. Mary D'Arcy said "It takes a long time for the aid to go from your brain to the leg to the horse to the horse's brain. It takes longer than 2 seconds, you have to prepare ahead of time." Are you prepared for 2022?

Show season has started!!! CDCTS has our own shows and events already scheduled for 2022. April 2 is the Ride-A-Test at Topperhill Farm. Thank you Susan Hill for hosting it and thank you Rita Dunn, USDF Gold Medalist, for stepping in to be the instructor. Riding spots are filled, but auditors are welcome ($20). I'm sure everyone who attends, rider or auditor, will learn a lot and improve their riding. May 7 is the Spring Schooling Show at Icon Equestrian Center (prize list is in this newsletter)—get signed up for dressage or combined tests. We're excited to be back at Icon! June 25 is the Dressage and Obstacles schooling show at Walnut Grove Stables and then back to Icon on September 24 for our Fall Schooling Show.

Putting on these shows takes a lot of work and coordination—getting the venue, finding a judge, preparing the prize list, making sure we have the ribbons and judging forms, scheduling the rides, arranging concessions and more. And that's BEFORE the show! We set up the day before (we need volunteers!) and need lots of help the day of the show (we need volunteers!).

The slogan this year is "What are you going to do new in 2022?". Did you move up a level? Are you jumping 3 feet? Did you and your horse finally understand Überstreichen? Be sure to share what you do new in 2022 with us (we like pictures!), so we can add it to the newsletter!

Until next month, Happy Riding!

Carolyn Ordal,

CDCTS President

The Treasurer's Report was read by Melissa Morehead. A motion to accept the Treasurers Report as presented was made by Jean Sullivan and seconded by Julie Hall.

Show Committee:

- The spring schooling show will be held at Icon Equestrian Center on May 7, 2022. In addition to our regular classical and western dressage tests, the show will include combined training tests and working equitation dressage test as Test of Choice. The rider will need to provide two (2) copies of the desired Test of Choice to the show management. A proposed budget is needed from Melissa Morehead and/or Susan Hill. Dene Massengill will coordinate course design and contact Icon regarding the use of their jumps. Volunteers are needed for Friday set up as well as throughout the day of the show. Susan Hill will work to identify a Volunteer Coordinator. The prize list was finalized by Melissa Morehead and will be distributed to the club membership via email. The prize list will be posted on the website and published on the club Facebook page.
- Due to an unexpected schedule conflict for Donna Richardson, the Ride a Test Clinic scheduled for April 2, 2022 at Topperhill Farm, Lenoir City, TN, will be conducted by Rita Dunn. The club thanks Rita for stepping in. All of the scheduled riders for the clinic were in agreement for the substitution. The club thanks Donna for the offer and will hopefully be able to reschedule later in the year. Auditing fee for the clinic is $20.00. The proposed budget will be provided by Susan Hill. Clarification is needed by the board as to the auditor form mentioned by Carolyn Ordal.
- The summer schooling show will be held June 25, 2022 at Walnut Grove Stables, hosted by CDCTS member Dene Massengill. In addition to our regular classical and western dressage tests, the show will include working equitation dressage and obstacle classes. The show will not include combined training classes. Carolyn Ordal will ensure proper insurance coverage is obtained. The club will continue to look into obtaining additional working equitation obstacles. Melissa Morehead has located a judge for this event.
- Melissa Morehead confirmed Icon Equestrian has agreed to hold the fall schooling show. More information to follow.

Julie Hall reported the club has 56 new or renewed members at this time.

Welcome Committee:

WHAT IF I FALL?

by Anne Titus on Conversano Toscana "Tosi"

My favorite quote is "What if I fall? Oh, but my darling, what if you fly!" ~Erin Hanson~

I have repeated that to myself over and over since I first saw it.

Prior to the February 2022 River Glen Schooling Show, it had rained every day the week leading up to the show. Well, of course that meant water puddles with horse eating sharks! I am sure if they had just been man eating sharks my horse would have been fine with that.

Here we go, test one, trot down the long side of dreaded puddles! Nope, not happening! The King of drama was not about to fall into the depths of doom. We made it through the test safely though, whew!

Ok, well I obviously had not done my due diligence preparing my horse to overcome water puddles and at the show is not the place to start. So, this one is definitely on me. And let's hope I have learned a lesson.

There was some time between my tests and thankfully Susan Hill said, "let's work on this a little." The benefits of having an instructor to remind you that both you and your horse have a brain and knowing how much to push you when you are in the warmup feeling like your brain just turned to mush, is beyond value! Before I knew it, my horse was like hmmm ok, I can walk through a puddle without something trying to eat me and I can even do it calmly and not die. Alright, confidence boost for both of us!

Here we go, test two, trot down the dreaded long side saying to myself "Hold your line! Hold your line!" Through the puddles we went and without looking like we were filming a scene from Jaws! Alright! Another confidence boost!

Nearing the end of the test, time to canter down that dreaded long side! Again, "Hold your line! Hold your line!" is running through my head. Through the first puddle we went, without so much as a bobble, success! Now, the distance between puddles was less than a stride but somehow in that split second, I was able to tell myself "Hold the line, you ARE going through that next puddle" and fly we did!
