From Your President

Our Spring schooling show was a success. Thanks to everyone who braved the early morning thunderstorms (which were gone before the show started) to show and to help out. To paraphrase -- it takes a club to host a show! Many thanks go out to everyone who made it happen and congratulations to all riders. Judge Marie McDonald was very accommodating to schedule changes which made things run smoothly. Thanks to everyone who made this work! Susan Hill for getting the judge, venue and volunteers; WaterStone Farm LLC for allowing us to have a show there, just 2 weeks after they moved in; Carol Belcher for scoring and all her other valuable assistance; Kacy Schnake for everything show related and more, Julie Noe who kept the show going smoothly as Ring steward, Chief Chef Mike Sullivan, Lynn and John Holtman and Julie Hall for trailer transportation and everyone who helped Saturday as well as those who helped with set up and clean up. (Sorry if I forgot anyone!)

Hot News! We are getting Dr. Emily Rose back for a clinic on July 8-9. This is filling up fast, so get your entry form in ASAP. Dr. Rose and her biomechanics helped everyone who attended in April—both riders and horses. This is a clinic well worth it for both you and your horse.

Next up is our Summer Schooling Show, June 15, at Walnut Grove stables in Talbott. This is a lovely venue and I encourage everyone to participate — whether as a rider or a volunteer (or both!). You can show and volunteer! Remember, you need at least 4 volunteer hours in order to qualify for year end awards.

This is CDCTS's busiest year yet! We have events scheduled every month March -- October! We're still working on the details of our "Not Ready for Prime Time" fun show on July 27. This is for green horses and green riders and those who want to have some horsey related fun. We are fortunate to be able to have it at Red Oak Hill Farm in Lenoir City. Classes and price per class will be available soon.

We have proposed a trail ride for members and inviting nonmembers to join us in August. Again, details are in progress. September 28 is our Fall Schooling Show and October 26 is Fall Fun Day. Mark your calendars to participate and/or volunteer! CDCTS needs your support in order to continue to offer different events throughout the year.

See you at the June 15 show! Until then, happy riding!

Approval of the Minutes

Lynn Holtman made a motion to approve the May meeting minutes and seconded by Julie Noe and approved.

Kacy Schnake provided the Treasurer's Report. Lynn Holtman made a motion to approve the Treasurer's Report. Susan Hill seconded the motion and it was accepted and approved.

Old Business

Membership Committee Report

The current club membership is about 35 members. Membership was 60 plus a year ago. Need to contact those who have not renewed for renewal.

Clinics/Seminars

2024 Shows/Events

- The May 5, 2024 Show was successful, however, the club only made about $100 after all expenses paid. Goal is to try and get 50 rides per show. This show only had about 34 rides, but they were mostly members. Non-members got an application form in their show packet.
- The Summer Schooling Show is scheduled on June 15 at Walnut Grove Stables. Carolyn Ordal will be out of town for work June 10-14 and will not be able to help prior to show. Julie Hall has volunteered to be show secretary. Volunteers are needed, plus concessions (purchasing, cooking, etc). Carolyn gave meeting attendees proposed budgets for both show and concessions. Kacy will make sure Summer Schooling Show entry form is out on FB and give to Coy Jo for the website.
- July 27 Not Ready for Prime time fun show. Red Oak Hill Farm has offered to host this show. Sloan will get a list of classes to Carolyn and she will create a class list and entry form. The idea is to have "show" classes in the morning and horsey games in the afternoon.

New Business

- Online entry forms -- there were some glitches with Spring Schooling show entry forms. Mandy Henderson and Kacy Schnake have done some research and will continue to check out options.
- Proposed trail ride -- Carolyn proposed a trail ride in August for members and a way to invite non-members to meet CDCTS and check us out.
- New Emily Rose clinic -- Another Emily Rose Biomechanics Clinic has been proposed for July 8-9 (Monday and Tuesday). Kacy Schnake will survey members to get commitments. This will be more expensive as we do not have a grant to offset costs. Need 14 riders to commit. Red Oak Hill Farm will again host this clinic.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:45 p.m. Next meeting is June 11 at Calhoun's on Kingston Pike.
