

The How To Podcast Series Guide to Better Interview Questions

This is our sample list of potential interview questions based on multiple interviews - give your guest a great experience by asking engaging questions!

If you have a suggested addition to this list please reach out and we will gladly update the following!

- What do people misunderstand about you most?
- What is your legacy?
- What piece of feedback have you received that made you change your mind?
- If you could interview your favourite author who would it be and what is the most important question that you would like to ask them? (Then) have your guest answer that very same question if they are an author themselves!
- What was the last book, movie, song etc that you recommended to a friend? (follow up) What was so outstanding about that particular recommendation that you felt that you had to share it?
- Who knows you best?
- What's something people seem to misunderstand about you?
- What is your best tip for making the world a better place?
- If you could remove one barrier in your life today what would you remove and why is it still in your way?
- Is there a piece of advice you'd give to listeners just starting in the industry?
- Have you ever met one of your heroes?
- Have you ever had a mentor? Tell us about them.