About IAFPNA

IAFPNA, an affiliate of the IAFP, supports food safety professionals of Indian origin. We promote professional growth through workshops, training, presentations, and mentoring. Emphasizing collaboration, we aim to protect the global food supply. IAFPNA connects members from academia, industry, and government, offering resources to enhance careers in the U.S. and India, and strengthening ties with Indian professionals.

President's note

As we continue to grow in IAFPNA membership and support, I am thrilled to witness the positive impact we are making in food safety education and professional development. Our commitment to education and engagement has strengthened our membership, making IAFPNA a more meaningful and dynamic organization. This year, we organized several events to include more learning opportunities for our students and professional members. Your participation and dedication are vital to IAFPNA's mission, and I am confident that together, we will continue to contribute to advancing the professional growth of our food safety professionals.

Please join us at the annual meeting to celebrate IAFPNA's success and provide your input to improve future activities. Your presence will also greatly encourage our student participants, who are eager to learn and engage with you all.
