

COACHES

COACH STEVEN RANDERSON

DEFENSIVE LINE

Coach Randerson is a proud Floridian from Palm Beach (Lake Worth), where he earned a football scholarship to play linebacker at Miles College in Birmingham, Ala. He has spent the past 13 years keeping our community safe and sound as an Atlanta police officer. With aspirations of attending law school soon, Coach Randerson is also the proud father of a talented sophomore on the team. He loves traveling, enjoying the beach, lifting weights, and running 5Ks.

COACH BRYCE DOE

RUNNING BACKS

Coach Doe graduated from Josey High School (Augusta) and attended Clark Atlanta University on football and track and field scholarships, earning a bachelor's degree in mass media arts. After stints at Osborne and Wheeler high schools, Coach Doe is in his seventh year at NAHS, where he also serves as head coach of the boys' and girls' track and field teams. His track and field teams have won multiple championships at the region (1 girls, 5 boys) and district (4 girls, 3 boys) levels.

COACH NED COLEMAN

TIGHT ENDS/FULLBACKS

"Coach Ned" graduated in 2021 from NAHS, where he played tight end and defensive end and also lettered in basketball and golf. He is currently enrolled at Georgia Tech, where he will earn a bachelor's degree in Biomedical Engineering with a minor in Biochemistry this December. This is his first year coaching football as he applies to medical schools, with hopes of becoming a surgeon. His hobbies include golf, running, grilling, pickleball and watersports.

COACH TYSON GRAHAM

SAFETIES

Originally from South Florida, Coach "TG" earned a football scholarship to the University of South Dakota. After being recruited as wide receiver, he made the transition to playing safety his sophomore year. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Indianapolis Colts in 2017 and then joined the Atlanta Falcons in 2018. He later played professionally in the AAF, XFL and USFL, retiring in 2022. He is married to Caitlyn.

COACH RE'JON ANTHONY

LINEBACKERS

Coach Anthony graduated from Massillon (Ohio) Washington High School, where he lettered in football and wrestling. He earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Georgia State University and is now in his fourth season coaching linebackers at NAHS, while also serving as a middle school health and PE teacher. He enjoys teaching his young son different sports and physical activities. He also enjoys playing video games.

