

Road bike holiday, Silver coast – Portugal

Are you looking for a new challenge and cycle on unknown territory? Together with your bike club, a few friends or girlfriends? Moving on pretty quiet roads, you can enjoy sunny days, the beautiful coast lines, flat stages and steep climbs. You can find that all at the Silver coast of Portugal. Only one hour above Lisbon. You will stay in hotel Concha in São Martinho do Porto.

There are 7 day stages between 70 and 130 km.

On day 1 you will cycle from São Martinho do Porto a relatively flat tour of 97 km and 950 hm to San Pedro de Moel and ride with the wind at your back, back to the Bay of São Martinho do Porto.

Day 2 is a day trip of 102 km/1322hm to the surfing town of Peniché and the route goes back along the beautiful fortified town of Óbidos.

Day 3 Goes from São Martinho do Porto through the Serra de Candeeiros to Batalha. You can choose between a short route 81 km/1850hm, or the long route of 104km/2150hm. You will stay in the Casa do Outeiro hotel, who is connected to the bikotel formula, overlooking the large monastery of Batalha.

Day 4 takes you from Batalha to Fátima, Ourém and back again 85 km 1479 hm or do you want to go a little bit further in the direction of Santarém and then again to Batalha? 129 km 2326 hm. You will stay in the bikotel Casa do Outeiro in Batalha.

Day 5 is a resting day in Batalha

There may also be chosen for a day route through the Candeeiros. 95km 2232hm.

Day 6 will take you back to São Martinho do Porto. Starting from Batalha you will ride to Pedrogão (long route) and bike with a view of the ocean back to hotel Concha. 100 km 1293hm With the short route you will meet the Ocean near San Pedro de moel. 75 km 995hm.

This last day will lead you to the Serra de Montejuto. Riding along Óbidos and Bombarral you will come to the beginning of the Montejunto. There you climb to a height of 666m.

Here you have a magnificent view of the surrounding area. Along the other side of the serra you go down again and you will be led back to São Martinho do Porto. 113Km 2074hm.
