MEET THE ARTIST

Vanna Black, a muralist, illustrator, and trained graphic designer who obtained her BFA from Georgia State University in hybrid design. Her art displays colorful, motion-filled landscapes and floral imagery painted strictly on wood panel in acrylic and latex paints as her preferred canvas and mediums for fine art. She is inspired by African motifs and Japanese Landscape Art. She uses her art as a visual metaphor and message to get people to connect back to nature to enhance their mental wealth. Vanna's mission is to use composition, color, scale and balance to open the viewer's mind for internal reflections about one's own thoughts on the world and other perspectives. She visualizes a world where everyone is nurturing each other while learning about how to be self-maintaining like Nature.

Being an Atlanta native, raised in Ormewood Park neighborhood of Atlanta GA, She connects with her inner child a lot. And Truly believes her childhood community is expressed throughout her art. Vanna is an active member of CreativeMornings, a global media company, of the Atlanta chapter and is currently a member cohort of the fellowship for PaintLove non-profit organization working with under served children using Art as Therapy.

Vanna is represented by Cat Eye Creative, and her client list consists of Hermès, Sustainable Forestry Initiative, Atlanta Downtown Improvement Development, Oakland Cemetery, City of Decatur, City of Atlanta, City of Dunwoody, Canada Goose, Namara Agency,. She has created a few local residential mural and art collectors also. And continues to open herself up for further collaborations and commissions.
