The Farm

Perched high in Vermont's Northeast Kingdom, Altitude Drops is more than a cannabis brand — it's a way of life rooted in regenerative farming and the belief that good things take time, care, and love. Recycle, Reuse, and Repurpose.

We grow our flower on a regenerative farm where sheep graze and soil thrives. Our cannabis extract comes from sun-grown, living soil, single-sourced cannabis, CO<sub>2</sub> extracted into a decadent full-spectrum cannabinoid and terpene-rich extract. From seed to shelf, every gummy, mint, chocolate bar, and vape cart is crafted with care.

We're proud to offer Vermont small-batch products with a big impact.

The Origin

Meet Marissa Dunn of Altitude Drops and David Templeman of Cannamentals, who first crossed paths as starry-eyed teens in San Francisco. Their friendship blossomed into an epic saga spanning more than 30 years. Back in the day, these two rebels would ditch school to hang out on Haight, puffing away and weaving pipe dreams of one day owning a cannabis business. And guess what? Those hazy day dreams turned into a reality!

The Sheep

Our Woolly flock of Icelandic sheep manufacture invaluable inputs for our sun grown living soil mixture.

The Soil

David has spent more than 30 years curating his living soil mixture. Infused with inputs directly composted and brewed on our regenerative farm.

The Grow

"We don't take shortcuts. We grow cannabis with love, extract it with care, and infuse it with purpose."

Gummies

Our beloved gummies are infused with full-spectrum CO<sub>2</sub>-extracted cannabis, delivering the purest expression of the plant in every bite. Handcrafted in small batches with real fruit flavors, these bite-sized treats are delicious and potent.

PRIDE

Guess what? We took a slice of every PRIDE pack sold and sponsor a whole team for the OutRight Vermont annual Fire Truck Pull! We're still cranking out our favorite, inclusive mix because, hey, Love is Love! And everyone loves a mixed pack. 🌈

The Beloved Original Line Up

For three delightful years, we've been whipping up these sweet treats in the Vermont market, and folks can't stop snatching them up! Whether it's our spooky seasonal Halloween collection or the vibrant PRIDE mixed pack, people all over Vermont are popping these little gems like there's no tomorrow!

Sunset Blood Orange

Blood orange, do I really need to say anything else? It's absolutely exploding with the zest of natural Blood Orange!

Juicy Red Raspberry

This crowd-pleaser practically sprints off the shelves! Those irresistible red raspberries are calling your name!

Vermont Green Apple

Crisp Vermont Green apples. Crafted to capture the essence of those crunchy little green apples we eagerly gather each fall in the NEK for cider-making magic!

Purposeful Gummies

For the savvy connoisseur who craves a gummy with a mission, delivered in fresh new mixed flavor packs.

Chocolate Bars

Mouth-watering 100 mg chocolate bars, kissed with our full-spectrum extract. Perfect for jazzing up your campfire S'mores! Add a dash to your cozy evening hot cocoa or make it the star of a delightful date night!

Something about Full Spectrum and Chocolate

There's something truly magical about it! Over the past few years, we've gathered a devoted fan club of chocolate bar aficionados. Their mantra? "It just hits different."

And here's a little secret: we've got two new strain-specific bars sneaking onto the scene soon! Shhh!

Dark Chocolate Smoked Sea Salt

The original Dark Chocolate and Smoked Sea Salt bar is a love letter to our San Francisco roots, bringing the salty sea breeze straight to the northeast!

Milk Chocolate S'Mores

Rooted in Community

At Altitude Drops, we're proud to give back to the place that gives us so much. Every step of our process, from cultivation and CO<sub>2</sub> extraction to manufacturing and packaging, is done right here, using small businesses in Vermont's Northeast Kingdom. Our investors aren't just Vermonters—they're our neighbors. By keeping our operations local, we're working to build a circular economy that sustains our land, our people, and this little slice of heaven we call home.

We're thrilled to have your support for our regenerative farm at least five other NEK households in Vermont! It's an honor to be featured on your shelves and in your customers' hands.

Let's Grow Together

We're always on the lookout for like-minded partners in the Vermont cannabis market who are ready to collaborate, strategize, and stand out. Whether you're looking for exclusive product drops to set your shop apart or want us to white-label your edible vision under your brand, we're here for it. Let's create something your customers will keep coming back for—and have a little fun while we're at it.
