LOGLINE

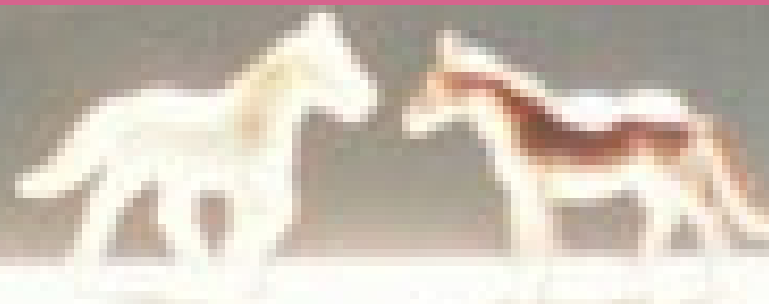

The time in your life when your friends are your family and no one knows what the fu*k is going on!

Rosie and Hazel, present day, gen-Z, twenty-somethings, are trying to navigate the realities of their newfound adulthoods, but when things aren't perfect they escape into the world of their “Dirty Books”. Will Romance, be it real or imaginary, lead to a new path or will it take the girls too far from the one reality they’ve always known?

PILOT

- We meet Rosie. She is trying to find a job in marketing, while currently paying her bills by being a barista. She is an avid reader and decides to only read romance books this month as a fun little way to bring joy into her life.
- We meet Hazel. She is starting a new semester of Law School. She is all about work, work, work. If she is not working, she is indulging in her hobbies and quality time with her friends. Maybe if she has the time, a quick casual Tinder date.
- Seeing Rosie struggle with real world drama, Hazel and Will both encourage her to start a BookTok account. What none of them expect, is for the account to take off the way it does. All of a sudden, the book community is obsessed with her month of Smut ideas.
- In the end Rosie finally, FINALLY, gets an interview with her dream marketing firm. But has her path already veered too far in a new direction?
- Rosie and Hazel will be thrown into the world of romance novels, but will they be able to balance reality and fantasy?

SEASON ONE: OVERVIEW

- Rosie pivots her career dreams when she starts a successful BookTalk account and finds strength in the new community that she becomes a part of. She becomes comfortable with the unknown of this newfound path.
- Hazel, currently in her second year of Law School, gets tangled in a provocative relationship with her professor and learns that love is in fact real.
- A group of college friends show that they stand hand in hand through the celebrations and devastations of their early twenties. The two leaders of the group, Sophie and Jake, get engaged causing the group to celebrate their friends' love and simultaneously evaluate their own relationships.
- Rosie and Hazel go on a journey of sexual empowerment from their wildest fantasies to real life scenarios.

WHY THIS SHOW IS SPECIAL

- The Real vs Fantasies: The characters start to go into their imaginations at random times and play out sexy fantasies. The audience sees them, but none of the other characters. We get a peek inside everyone's (dirty) minds!

- The Apps that Rule Our Lives: Texting, Hinge, TikTok, Instagram, Bumble, Tinder, Snapchat, dare I say more? These are the apps that the character's use and explore. Messages will appear on the screen for the audience to see and read. The characters will talk about these apps frequently. We will see the positive and negative effects.

- The Romance Novel Resurgence: People are reading again! And our characters are reading some steamy, dirty books. The world of BookTok plays a huge role in the show as well as the books themselves. The books offer the character's their fantasies, their careers, and so much more!

NOBODY WANTS THIS MEETS SEX IN THE CITY

THE CHARACTERS:

23-year old female.

She just graduated college with a degree in marketing, and she is looking for a job in that field. She is kind, smart, and quick to solve her friend's many problems. She loves Romance Books and gets all the girls in the group to read them. She unintentionally becomes a viral BookToker and comes to the conclusion that this is what she was meant to do, even though she has no idea how or why. She's one of the most positive people in the world, but cries alone.

HAZEL

23- year old female.

She is in her second year of law school. Hazel knows how to be the corporate bitch, but alone with her friends, she is a free spirit who has 101 hobbies. She is extremely confident and is fiercely loyal to her friends.

She will help any of them in crisis, but will laugh at them first. She is maybe a little too tough and strong, and she doesn't believe in lasting love until it rescues her from a car breakdown.

WILL

24-year old male.

She is the struggling actor with a thousand accents and a smile that could kill. He became the “third musketeer” when Rosie and Hazel called him into their dorm room freshman year to kill a bug. From that point on, he was one of the girls. Though one of said girls is probably his future wife, he hides his feelings and focuses on his budding career.

ELLA

23-year old female.

She is the ride or die bestie to Hazel and Rosie. An aspiring lawyer, Ella is a go-getter. She is sweet and kind, but not afraid to say what she really thinks no matter if people want to hear it or not. She seems so self assured, but is dealing with her own demons and issues with self. She's a party animal who is always there to hold her friends' hair back. She is the friend you want in crisis, headstrong with a positive perspective.

JAKE

24-year old male.

He is our resident 'Frat Bro', athlete, 'Finance Bro' that by all accounts should be insufferable, but Sophie brings out the man who everyone loves. He is a fierce protector of everyone in the group. He would lay down his life for any of them. But his sun rises and sets with Sophie. No one has ever been more in love. Don't fret though, his bro side stays active with his job working for the Lakers.

SOPHIE

23-year old female.

She is the beautiful blonde that looks like a princess and sounds like one too. Her and Jake are the 'mom and dad' of the friend group. She is sweet beyond belief, but when she gets with her girls she is a party animal. She wants the best for everyone and wants all of her friends to be as in love as she is. If she wasn't so busy working with her Dad and being an entertainment industry baller, she could open up a matchmaking company. She loves karaoke, but should never be allowed to sing.

DYLAN

25-year old male presenting.

He is better; he's just better at life. He's sexy Jesus out on a mission to love and bring everyone to climax. Sometimes he speaks in riddles, but when you decode them, you find the best advice. He is the show's sexual, spiritual, and emotional guru. If only he could take his own advice when it comes to sharing one's feelings.

JAMES

James is kind and loving, but ultimately unsupportive of Rosie's new career path.

The two romantic partners of Rosie and Hazel.

RICHARD

Richard is the sexy, forbidden, law professor that Hazel falls in love with but can't keep due to the complications in their relationship.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The audience for the show are women or female identifying individuals ages 19-35. We also believe that men of the same age would be a target audience for the show as well. The show is an Adult RomCom, so it is believed that the show will reach those audiences. The show aims to be inclusive with characters who are members of the LGBTQ+ community and characters identifying as multiple ethnicities, races, and cultures.

The show is also a love letter for the book community. From readers, BookTokers, authors, to publishers, this story celebrates them and their books!

SHOWRUNNERS & CREATORS

OLIVIA DOPP

Kiley and Olivia are the Showrunners and Creators of I Read Dirty Books. They both graduated from the University of Southern California with degrees in Theatre and Film. This is their first show and TV project, it is their baby!

KILEY FALLON

PRODUCER

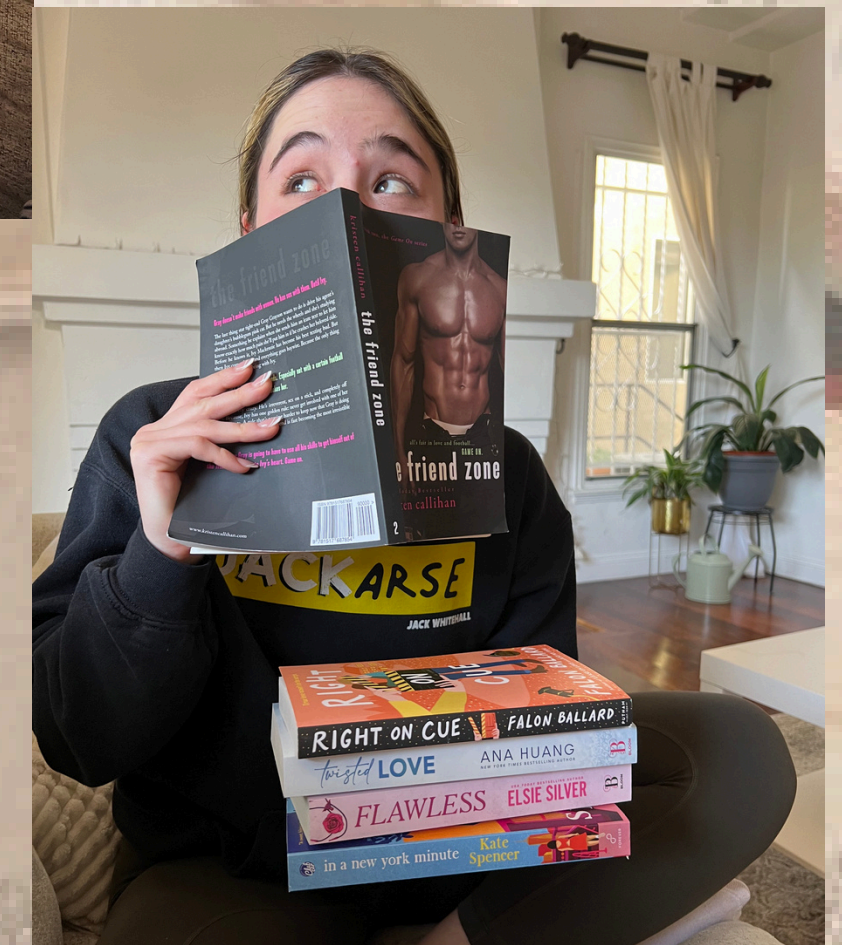

Sophia Dawson is a producer and multifaceted creative dedicated to developing layered, original narratives that explore the beauty and complexity of the human experience. Trained at The American Academy of Dramatic Arts and UCLA, she brings a collaborative approach to every project. As co-founder of a production company, Sophia draws on her experience in acting, directing, filmmaking, writing, and photography to craft authentic, resonant stories rooted in vulnerability, connection, and truth.

SOPHIA DAWSON

WRITERS

Kiley and Olivia wrote this show as a time capsule and love letter to their post grad lives and the beautiful community of readers. They wanted to highlight the struggles of being in your early 20's in 2023 and trying to carve a path forwarded for yourself. Although there is struggle and uncertainty, Kiley and Olivia wanted to show the beauty, joy, and friendship that exists within that period of life.

The show also pulled from Olivia's real life Smunth blog: <https://www.smunth.com>.
