

CAROLINE SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES
THE CAROLEAN AGE

General requirements for University of London LLB

If you are already enrolled with the University of London LLB program, then you are already eligible for our coaching classes. However, if you are not enrolled with University of London then you need to fulfil the following requirements.

Age:

In order to register for the University of London's LLB program, you need to be over the age of 17.

Prior Education:

- You need to have at least an A levels or equivalent certification to be eligible for admission. At Least 3 modules of A levels required to be passed for the admission with the grades being between A* - C. Prior graduations or other post graduate certifications are also considered.
- Please note that each application is considered individually.
- In case someone finds themselves under qualified for the program prior work experience or alternative educational experience may be considered on University of London's discretion

Language Requirements:

Basic understanding of English Language is required as per the general requirements of University of London. You need to have an IELTS to be eligible for the admission (IELTS) International English Language Testing System: overall score of at least 7.0, with at least 6.5 in Writing and 5.5 in sub-tests Reading, Listening and Speaking (Academic or General or IELTS Indicator Online Test), awarded in the past three years.

Computer Knowledge requirements:

You need to have a basic understanding and knowledge of working a computer as most of the access to your resources as well as the examinations would be done via a computer.