

CAROLINE SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES
THE CAROLEAN AGE

Program Regulations and Progression Rules for Professional Diploma In English language & Liberal Arts:

To successfully complete the Advanced Diploma in International Criminal Law and Criminology, students must fulfill the following program regulations and progression rules:

1. Duration: The program is designed to be completed within 6 months, with each module lasting for the instructor prescribed period. It is important to adhere to the timeline and complete the modules within the specified duration.

2. Module Completion: Students are required to complete all six modules of the program successfully. Each module covers specific topics related to English Language Proficiency, English Literature and Criticism, Introduction to Liberal Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities, and Research and Applied Liberal Arts.

3. Assessment: Assessment methods may vary for each module and can include assignments, quizzes, examinations, research papers, or presentations. Students must fulfill the assessment requirements for each module in order to progress to the next module.

4. Minimum Passing Grade: A minimum passing grade of 50% per module must be achieved in each module to successfully complete the program. The specific passing grade may be determined by the institution offering the diploma.

5. Progression: Students must progress through the modules in the prescribed order, starting with Module 1 and concluding with Module 6. It is important to complete each module before moving on to the next one to ensure a comprehensive understanding of the subject matter.

CAROLINE SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES
THE CAROLEAN AGE

6. Attendance: Regular attendance is expected for all classes, whether they are conducted in person or online. Students should actively participate in discussions and activities to enhance their learning experience. The minimum attendance

7. Academic Integrity: Students must adhere to the principles of academic integrity and avoid any form of plagiarism or cheating. All work submitted must be the student's original work, properly cited and referenced where necessary.

8. Program Completion: Upon successful completion of all six modules and fulfillment of the program requirements, students will be awarded the Advanced Diploma in International Criminal Law and Criminology.

9. Examination Attempts:

- Students enrolled in the Advanced Diploma in International Criminal Law and Criminology are allowed a maximum of three attempts to pass each course examination.

- The three attempts include the initial examination as well as two additional retakes.

- It is important to note that each examination attempt must be taken within the designated examination period specified by the school.

10. Consequences of Failing to Pass an Examination:

- If a student fails to pass a course examination after three attempts, they will be required to retake the entire course.
- The student must re-enroll in the course during the next available term and complete all course requirements, including assignments and examinations.
- Failure to pass the course after the second attempt may result in academic counseling and additional support to help the student succeed in the third attempt.

CAROLINE SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES
THE CAROLEAN AGE

- Student failing to pass two modules with the maximum attempts allowed will result in permanent disqualification of the said candidate.

11. Examination Security and Academic Integrity:

- Students are required to adhere to strict academic integrity guidelines during examinations.
- Any form of cheating, plagiarism, or unauthorized collaboration will result in disciplinary action, which may include disqualification from the examination or the entire program.
- The school maintains a zero-tolerance policy for academic dishonesty and takes violations seriously.

12. Examination Accommodations:

- Students with documented disabilities or special needs may request reasonable accommodations for examinations.
- Accommodation requests should be made in advance to the school's designated disability services office, providing appropriate documentation.
- The school will make reasonable efforts to provide necessary accommodations to ensure an equitable examination experience for all students.

13. Examination Review and Feedback:

- Students will have the opportunity to review their examination results and receive feedback from faculty members.
- The feedback provided will offer insights into areas of strength and areas that require improvement.
- It is encouraged for students to take advantage of the feedback and seek additional support or resources to enhance their understanding and performance.

CAROLINE SCHOOL OF LEGAL STUDIES

THE CAROLEAN AGE

Please note that the above regulations are subject to change and students are advised to consult the official program handbook or contact the school administration for the most up-to-date information.

Additionally, it is important to note that the specific regulations and progression rules may vary depending on the institution offering the program. Students are advised to refer to the official program guidelines and consult with their academic advisors for detailed information and clarification.