

Blue Print Pumpkin Pin

Fall Random Acts Of Kindness Project
 Every Year I paint a hundred or so Pins, and gift them away to total strangers. Whomever I feel, is in need of a little kindness. I began Posting the Free Pattern Sheets, like this one, on Social Media, to share with Other painters and crafters, in the hope that they would, in turn, practice a Random Act of Kindness. I was NOT disappointed!

So this Is Your Challenge for this year...Make one, a few or make hundreds... share them with anyone that you believe could use a little kindness this season. Give Freely, Give Often and Give with A Generosity of Spirit!

A Random Act Of Kindness.. is a gift you give Yourself.

 #2 Rigger, 1/2 Angled Shader,

Misc:
 Stazon Stamp Pad (Black)

To Begin:

This is very easy to do!

Base the wooden tags with Titanium White. Let it dry well.

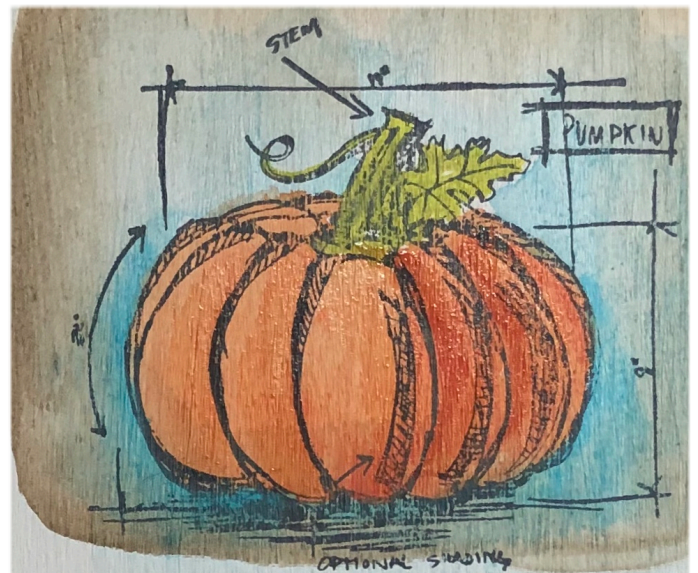

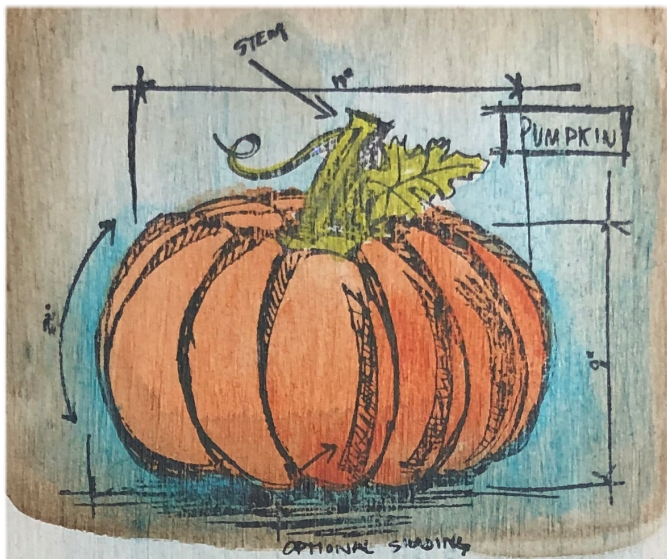

Load the Pumpkin Stamp on the Stamp Pad and press to the wooden tags. Set them aside to dry.

Apply a wash of Cobalt Teal Hue to the background of the tag, keep the darkest value to the edges of the Pumpkin.

Apply a wash of the Vermillion to the Pumpkin, shade the details of the pumpkin with floats of thinned Quinacridone Gold. Highlight with a stroke of Titanium/Vermillion.

Base the Stem and vine on the pumpkin with the green Gold.

Float the edges of the pin with thinned Asphaltum.

I am a firm believer that if you cannot do big things, then do small things in abundance. Everyday can be difficult for some, and the stresses of everyday life can feel compounded. Try brightening someones day with this little gift. Give them to the Cashier at your favourite shop, the bank teller, the elderly lady in line behind you or anyone that you think could use a dose of Christmas Cheer. It can be a total stranger or the lady next door. A small and simple act of kindness can do a great deal to make a persons everyday feel a little brighter!!
