Happy Holidays

Every Year I paint a hundred or so Pins, and gift them away to total strangers. Whomever I feel, is in need of a little Christmas Spirit. I began Posting the Free Pattern Sheets, like this one, on Social Media, to share with Other painters and crafters, in the hope that they would, in turn, practice a Random Act of Christmas Kindness. I was NOT disappointed!
So this Is Your Challenge for this year...Make a few or make hundreds... share them with anyone that you believe could use a little kindness this holiday season.

Give Freely, Give Often and Give with A Generosity of Spirit!
A Random Act Of Christmas Kindness..... is a gift you give Yourself.

Merry Christmas
Tracy Moreau

To Begin:

Base the tags with one coat of Kelly Green. Let it dry well. Trace and transfer the line drawing to the tags. Then shade the edges of the tag and around the image with a float of Plantation Pine. Base the ginger with two coats of Raw Sienna, The eye with Lamp Black, and the mouth with Country Red. Let it dry well.

Shade the Gingers face with multiple floats of thinned Asphaltum. True the icing with the White dimensional paint. sprinkle it liberally with Glitter while wet. Dry brush a little blush onto the cheeks with Country Red.

Highlight the eye with a small float of Thinned warm White then add a final highlight with a dot of Titanium White.

outline the details of the face and head with the Black gel Pen. Glue the Small red Pom pom onto the face.

Spatter the tags with Thinned Warm White , let it dry then cut out and adhere the Happy Holidays tag with Glitter Decoupage. Glue the bow and bell over the hole in the tag.

Let it dry.

Add a pin back to the back of the pin and write the year on the back of the pin, and the note: PAY IT FORWARD.

RANDOM ACTS OF CHRISTMAS KINDNESS.

I am a firm believer that if you cannot do big things, then do small things in abundance. The Holiday Season is often difficult for some, and the stresses of everyday life during the season can feel compounded. Try brightening someones day with this little gift. Give them to the Cashier at your favourite shop, the bank teller, the elderly lady in line behind you or anyone that you think could use a dose of Christmas Cheer. It can be a total stranger or the lady next door. A small and simple act of kindness can do a great deal to make a persons Holiday Season feel a little brighter!!

Merry Christmas!!

The Rules

Sadly we need them.... though they are pretty simple. 1: Please do NOT make copies of and SELL this pattern. 2: Please do not SELL the pins you create from it (unless for charity)
