Every Year I paint a hundred or so Pins, and gift them away to total strangers. Whomever I feel, is in need of a little Christmas Spirit. I began Posting the Free Pattern Sheets, like this one, on Social Media, to share with Other painters and crafters, in the hope that they would, in turn, practice a Random Act of Christmas Kindness. I was NOT disappointed!
So this Is Your Challenge for this year...Make a few or make hundreds... share them with anyone that you believe could use a little kindness this holiday season.

Give Freely, Give Often and Give with A Generosity of Spirit!
A Random Act Of Christmas Kindness..... is a gift you give Yourself.

Merry Christmas

To Begin:

Base the tags with one coat of Tuscan Red. Stamp with any Text or script stamp using a black ink pad. Let it dry well, then shade the edges of the tag with a float of Soft Black. once dry, apply a wash of Thinned Soft Black over the entire tag. Trace and transfer the line drawing to the tags. Base all the open areas with one or two coats of Warm White. Let it dry well.

Shade the Candy and the Number with a float of Asphaltum. Let it dry... Then deepen the shading on the edges of the tag with floats of Soft Black.

Add a highlight opposite the shading with a stroke of Thinned Titanium White.

Spatter the tags with Thinned Warm White, let it dry then brush the entire Tap with Gitter Decoupage. Let it dry.

Add a pin back to the back of the pin and write the year on the back of the pin, and the note: PAY IT FORWARD.

RANDOM ACTS OF CHRISTMAS KINDNESS.

I am a firm believer that if you cannot do big things, then do small things in abundance. The Holiday Season is often difficult for some, and the stresses of everyday life during the season can feel compounded. Try brightening someones day with this little gift. Give them to the Cashier at your favourite shop, the bank teller, the elderly lady in line behind you or anyone that you think could use a dose of Christmas Cheer. It can be a total stranger or the lady next door. A small and simple act of kindness can do a great deal to make a persons Holiday Season feel a little brighter!!

Merry Christmas!!
