SLIDING SCALE:

Our Sliding Scale supports our capacity to sustain our work and continue to serve. It also helps us to include those without the financial resources to participate. Please consider contributing at the higher end of the scale and beyond if you have the resources and willingness to do so.

While we make our request for support known, we invite you to choose an amount within your financial capacity, including below the minimum requested.

If you need help with discernment, please contact Aya at aya.openheart@gmail.com OR
