

TEXAS CONCEALED HANDGUN LICENSE RANGE QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS

The Texas LTC/Open Carry range qualification consists of firing a total of 50 rounds using a specific course of fire. The pistol must be a minimum of .32 caliber. You may qualify with a revolver or semi-auto pistol. I recommend you qualify with a semi-auto that can hold a minimum of 10 rounds. You must be 21 years of age to be licensed to carry in the state of Texas. Find other frequently asked questions by searching the TxDPS- Regulatory Service Division web site and click on handgun licensing.

To pass the Texas LTC/Open Carry range qualification, a student must score 70% (175 points out of a possible 250 points).

Shooter Responsibility- $8.00 non-refundable range fee, 100 rounds of ammunition, 2 B-27 targets, and note taking material.

Optical enhancers such as lasers, red dot sites, or scopes, are not permitted by Texas DPS administrative code when qualifying.

Following step by step directions from the range officer, students' progress through each stage starting from the 3 yard line, moving back to the 7 yard line and finally to the 15 yard line.

All shots are fired on a B-27 target.
