

ADITYA SUTAR

THE FLAUTIST

INTRODUCTION

Aditya Sutar is an emerging Indian Classical Flutist who plays Bansuri with his profound and captivating style in the solo performances as well as alongside his Guru Pt. Rupak Kulkarni in various concerts, including Sangeet Mohotsavs in India and overseas. Currently, He is a "Grade B High" Artiste of All India Radio.

Aditya received his initial flute lessons in Sangli (Maharashtra) from Shri. S.B. Jadhav Sir who introduced him to Flute maestro Pt. Rupak Kulkarni for advance lessons because of his artistry and dedication. Presently, he is getting advance guidance of vast variety of flute presentation styles of 'Maihar Gharana' from Pt. Rupak Kulkarni. He is also taking lessons from Vocal Maestro Asawari Patwardhan Ji to understand various aspects of music.

Apart from performances, Aditya also delivers musical knowledge to the aspirants of Indian classical flute as Trainer through Pt. Rupak Kulkarni Flute Academy at Dadar and Andheri Branch in Mumbai in person and online. In his devoted and passionate musical journey, He has received many awards and scholarships as below.
