Greetings from the HBCU National Tennis Championships and Florida A&M University Athletics!!! I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to participate as a sponsor or an advertiser for the 18th Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships, hosted by Florida A&M University in the USTA Training Center in Orlando, Florida.

Tennis continues to be one of the fastest growing sports in America. The interest by African-Americans grows in popularity and participation with the play of current tennis stars, Serena and Venus Williams. This four-day tournament and a free tennis clinic will host more than 20 college tennis programs (both men and women) from historically black colleges and universities (HBCU), who will contend for this prestigious title. Last year events highlighted such teams as Alcorn State, Bethune-Cookman, Florida A&M, Fort Valley State, Hampton, North Carolina Central, Morehouse, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State, Arkansas Pine-Bluff, Alabama A&M, Prairie View A&M, Virginia State, South Carolina State, Southern University, Clark-Atlanta, Tennessee State, Winston-Salem State and Xavier University.

To better serve the needs of our participants, and increase visibility of these exciting tennis from historically black institutions, we are asking for your support as the sponsor for the 18th Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships.

If you are interested in supporting at a higher level, please review the attached sponsorship package. Should you have any questions regarding this event, please contact me at 850-321-3363 (cell).
