Dear Prospective Sponsor:

Greetings from the HBCU National Tennis Championships!!! I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to participate as a sponsor or an advertiser for the 23rd Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships, in the Atlanta area, at South Fulton Tennis Center. The 23rd Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships will be held on Thursday-Saturday, September 19-22, 2024. Should there be any inclement weather, we have a contingent make-up day of Sunday, September 22, 2024.

Tennis continues to be one of the fastest growing sports in America. The interest by African Americans grows in popularity and participation with the play of current tennis stars, such as 2017 U.S. Open champion Sloane Stephens, 2017 U.S. Open finalist Madison Keys, last year's 2023 U.S. Open champion Cori (Coco) Gauff, and of course Serena and Venus Williams, pioneers of women's tennis. FAMU's Althea Gibson was the first African American to win back-to-back Wimbledon and the US Championships titles in 1957 and 1958.

This three-day tournament and a high school tennis combine will host more than 20 college tennis programs (both men and women) from historically black colleges and universities (HBCU), who will contend for this prestigious title. Last year events highlighted such teams as Alabama A&M, Alabama State, Albany State, Benedict College, Bethune-Cookman, Clark-Atlanta, Florida A&M, Howard, Morgan State, North Carolina Central, North Carolina A&T State, Prairie View A&M, South Carolina State, Southern University, Tennessee State, Virginia State, and Xavier University of Louisiana.

To better serve the need for increased visibility and activity of exciting tennis from the collegiate talents within the historically black institutions, we are asking for your support as the sponsor for the 23rd Annual HBCU National Tennis Championships.

If you are interested in supporting at a higher level, please review the attached sponsorship package. Should you have any questions regarding this event, please contact me at 850-321-3363 (cell).

Thank you for your kind and generous support.

Sincerely,
