

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Macon County, IL – March 26th, 2026

On Saturday, Soy City Indivisible will be hosting a protest in concert with communities across the nation for what is shaping up to be a record-breaking day of civic engagement. This weekend's No Kings protest will be the largest in American history, surpassing the previous two largest protests, No Kings I (June 2025) and No Kings II (October 2025). More than 3,100 protests are registered for this weekend's demonstration, and it is projected that over 12 million people will be taking part.

The protest in Macon County will take place at the corner of Eldorado and Franklin streets in Decatur this Saturday (3/28/26) from 1 pm – 4 pm. Anyone interested in attending is encouraged to sign up at soycityindivisible.org.

To find a complete list of scheduled No Kings protests and the one closest to you, visit nokings.org.

For press inquiries, please email: press@soycityindivisible.org