"HEAVEN AND EARTH WILL PASS AWAY, BUT MY WORDS WILL NEVER PASS AWAY." — MATTHEW 24:35

INTRODUCTION

The New Testament is the most influential collection of writings in human history. It has transformed civilizations, inspired countless works of art and literature, shaped legal systems, comforted the suffering, challenged kings and empires, and above all has led millions to faith in Jesus Christ. Yet many people have never considered the remarkable story of how these twenty-seven books survived centuries of persecution, controversy, and relentless attempts to destroy them.

This book was written to tell that story.

The Amazing History of the New Testament is not merely a study of ancient manuscripts, dates, or archaeological discoveries. It is a visual journey through the people, places, events, and provincial cultures connected—sometimes uprooted—through six eras of preservation from the first century until our the first century today century until today. Every page is intended to make history come alive through illustrations, history come alive through illustrations, maps, timelines, backgrounds, and carefully researched summaries that help readers visualize one of the greatest stories ever told.

INTRODUCTION

The New Testament was born in a world dominated by the Roman Empire. Within a generation of Christ's resurrection, the apostles and their companions carried the gospel across Judea, Syria, Asia Minor, Greece, Egypt, Italy, and beyond. As churches multiplied, handwritten copies of the Gospels and apostolic letters circulated from congregation to congregation. Faithful believers treasured these writings because they recognized them as the authoritative testimony of those commissioned by the risen Christ.

The preservation of these writings was never easy, Christians endured waves of persecution under Roman emperors. During the Great Persecution under Diocletian in the early fourth century, churches were destroyed, Christian libraries were confiscated, and countless biblical manuscripts were burned. Many believers chose imprisonment or death rather than surrender the Scriptures. Yet despite these determined efforts to erase Christianity, the New Testament endured.

As Christianity spread, thousands of scribes devoted themselves to copying the sacred text by hand. Their work was carried out in homes, churches, monasteries, and scriptoria throughout the ancient world. Greek manuscripts were copied alongside early translations into Latin, Syriac, Coptic, Gothic, Armenian, Georgian, Ethiopic, and many other languages. Together these witnesses provide an extraordinary record of the transmission of the New Testament across continents and centuries.

THE ROAD THE GOSPEL TRAVELED

From a small group of disciples in Jerusalem, the Word of God went forth to the nations:

"And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come."

— Matthew 24:14

INTRODUCTION

This book also explores the development of the biblical canon—the process by which the Church recognized the books that bore apostolic authority and faithfully reflected the teaching, character of Christ, and life of the saints. Readers will meet many of the early church leaders who defended the faith, preserved Scripture, and quoted the New Testament extensively in their writings, leaving valuable testimony to its early circulation.

The invention of the printing press marked another turning point in biblical history. The work of scholars such as Erasmus, the Complutensian editors, Robert Estienne (Stephanus), Theodore Beza, William Tyndale, Martin Luther, and the translators of the King James Version brought the Scriptures to millions in their own languages. Their labors helped ignite the Reformation and forever changed the accessibility of God's Word.

INTRODUCTION

The modern era has witnessed remarkable archaeological discoveries that have expanded our knowledge of the New Testament's textual history. Ancient papyri recovered from Egypt, great uncial codices, medieval manuscripts preserved in monasteries, and thousands of additional witnesses continue to provide valuable evidence for understanding the transmission of the biblical text.

This book introduces these discoveries in an accessible and visual manner while explaining why they remain important to students of Scripture. By bringing together history, archaeology, geography, and the faithfulness of God's people, we gain a deeper appreciation for how His Word has been preserved and how it continues to speak with power, truth, and hope to every generation.

WHY THIS STORY MATTERS TODAY

It shows God's providential care in preserving His Word through every age.

It strengthens our confidence that we have the same message the apostles wrote.

It reminds us that ordinary people—scribes, believers, and church leaders—played a vital role in this great legacy.

It inspires us to value, protect, and share God's Word with the world.

THE BOOKMAKING INDUSTRY IN ANTIOCH ON THE ORONTES IN THE 1ST CENTURY

Antioch was one of the great cities of the Roman Empire—cosmopolitan, wealthy, and strategically located on trade routes that connected East and West. It was also a center for the production, copying, and distribution of books, including Jewish Scriptures and Christian writings.

A PROSPEROUS CITY

Antioch's location on the Orontes River made it a hub of commerce and culture. Merchants, educators, and scribes from many lands lived and worked here.

EDITING & REVIEW

Texts were carefully checked. Errors were corrected, and important works were sometimes compared with multiple copies.

FROM SCROLLS TO CODEX

By the 1st century, codex (book form) was becoming common among Christians because it was easier to use, carry, and preserve multiple writings.

MATERIALS

Papyrus was imported from Egypt in rolls. Parchment (animal skins) was prepared locally. Ink was made from soot and gum. Wooden boards and leather were used for binding.

SCRIBES AT WORK

Skilled scribes copied texts by hand with reed pens. They worked from earlier copies, reading aloud as they wrote.

BINDING

Pages were folded and gathered into signatures, sewn together, and bound with leather around wooden covers.

A LEGACY OF THE WORD

The bookmaking industry in Antioch helped preserve and transmit sacred writings that have influenced millions for two thousand years and beyond.

DISTRIBUTION

Finished books were sold in the marketplace, shipped to other cities, and sent with travelers. Ideas—and faith—spread through books.

CHRISTIAN WRITINGS

Alongside Greek literature and Jewish Scriptures, Christian writings were copied and circulated: the letters of Paul, the Gospels, the Acts, and other apostolic works that shaped the early churches.

The Early Church Copied the Word

Early Writers Show Today's New Testament was Copied in the Late First and Second Centuries

Their quotations and allusions preserve the wording of the books already circulating among the churches.

c. AD 95 — Clement of Rome

Uses or echoes Matthew, Luke, Romans, 1 Corinthians, Hebrews, and other apostolic writings.

c. AD 100–120 — The Didache

Reflects Matthew's Gospel and other early Christian teaching traditions.

c. AD 110 — Ignatius of Antioch

Draws upon the Gospels and several Pauline letters while writing to churches across the Roman world.

c. AD 110–135 — Polycarp of Smyrna

His short letter contains numerous quotations and allusions, especially from Paul and 1 Peter.

c. AD 150–165 — Justin Martyr

Describes the 'memoirs of the apostles' being read with the prophets in Christian worship.

c. AD 180 — Irenaeus of Lyons

Explicitly defends the fourfold Gospel and quotes broadly from the New Testament.

WHAT THIS SHOWS

By the end of the second century, the four Gospels, Acts, Paul's letters, and many other New Testament books were already widely known, copied, read, quoted, and defended across distant regions. These witnesses do not replace the manuscripts—but they independently confirm the early circulation and recognizable wording of today's New Testament.

IRENÆUS OF LYONS

A Solemn Warning to the Scribes Guardians of God's Word

c. 130 – c. 202 AD

Disciple of Polycarp • Bishop of Lyons • Defender of the Truth

WHO WAS IRENÆUS?

-  A faithful disciple of Polycarp, who was a disciple of the Apostle John
-  Bishop of Lyons in Gaul (France)
-  A powerful teacher and defender of apostolic truth
-  Wrote extensively against heresy and for the purity of Scripture
-  His major work: Against Heresies (Adversus Haereses)

IRENÆUS' WARNING TO SCRIBES

“It is within the power of all, in the Church, to contemplate the beauty of the Lord in the Scriptures, and if any one doesn't understand them, let him not yield to his own pleasure, but rather to the authority of the presbyters who are in the Church.

For it would be a great evil if anyone were to alter or corrupt, for his own advantage, the truth of God.”

– Against Heresies 3.7.1

A SERIOUS WARNING TO THOSE WHO COPY THE SCRIPTURES

Irenaeus understood that the accuracy of Scripture depends on the integrity of those who transmit it.

DO NOT ALTER THE TEXT

No one has the right to change a single word for personal reasons or to promote an opinion.

DO NOT CORRUPT FOR GAIN

Altering Scripture “for one's own advantage” is not only wrong—it is a great evil.

SUBMIT TO THE CHURCH'S AUTHORITY

The meaning of Scripture is not private opinion, but under the guidance of the presbyters (spiritual leaders) in the Church.

PRESERVE THE TRUTH OF GOD

The scribes are stewards, not owners. They must preserve, not manipulate, the Word of God.

“Let the scribes be like faithful servants, not lords over the Word of God.”

WHY THIS WARNING MATTERS

From the earliest days, Irenaeus saw how false teachers twisted or rejected Scripture. He knew that even small changes could lead many astray.

Scripture is Holy
It is the very Word of God and must be treated with reverence.

Truth Protects the Church
Corrupted texts open the door to heresy.

Unity Requires Faithfulness
One pure Gospel, one true faith, one Church.

THE CONSEQUENCES OF TAMPERING

Irenaeus saw this as “a great evil” because it:

Deceives the simple and weak in faith

Destroys confidence in God's Word

Feeds heresy and false doctrine

Brings judgment on the one who corrupts the Scriptures

“Woe to him through whom offenses come!”

EXAMPLES OF FAITHFUL SCRIBES

The early Church honored those who carefully preserved and transmitted the Word:

EZRA

Read the Law clearly and caused the people to understand (Nehemiah 8:8).

LUKE

Investigated everything carefully and wrote in order (Luke 1:3).

PAUL

Commanded Timothy: “Guard the deposit” (1 Timothy 6:20).

FAITHFUL SCRIBES

Through their care, we have the Scriptures today.

“The Church throughout the whole world carefully preserves the faith preached by the apostles.”

– Against Heresies 1.10.2

Let every scribe remember:
He holds not his own words, but the Words of Life.

TERTULLIAN'S QUOTATIONS

FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

(c. AD 155–220)

Tertullian is one of the earliest Christian writers to quote extensively from Scripture. His surviving works contain several thousand quotations, citations, and allusions from every book of the New Testament.

SIGNIFICANCE OF TERTULLIAN'S SCRIPTURE USE

- Quotes from every book of the New Testament.
- His works show that a very large portion of Scripture was already regarded as authoritative around AD 200.
- Valuable witness for the text of the New Testament in North Africa.
- Frequently argues from Scripture against heresy (Marcion, Praxeas, etc.).

Revelation	1:6; 5:10; 6:9; 20:4–6; 21:2; 21:10–23	Against Marcion, On Resurrection

* ON 1 JOHN 5:6–8

Tertullian does not quote the later Latin Comma ("Father, Word, and Holy Spirit...") in those exact words, but in Against Praxeas 25 he connects Father, Son, and Spirit and then appeals to John's statement about the three being one. This is an important early allusion relevant to the history of this text.

Tertullian's Claims

APOLOGIST • THEOLOGIAN • DEFENDER OF THE TRUTH

"What has Athens to do with Jerusalem? What agreement has the Academy with the Church? And what harmony has heresy with the truth?"

— Tertullian, Against Heresies 7.9

Tertullian was one of the earliest and most influential Latin Church Fathers. He vigorously defended the faith and the authority and purity of the Scriptures against heretics and false teachers.

GREEK IS THE TRUE AND AUTHORITATIVE LANGUAGE

"The original [Scriptures] were delivered in Greek, while every heretic translates them as he is able."

— Against Marcion 4.3

TERTULLIAN'S CLAIMS ABOUT THE GREEK SCRIPTURES

THE ORIGINALS WERE IN GREEK

The Apostles wrote and the Gospels were delivered in Greek, the universal language of the Church.

THE GREEK COPIES ARE MORE RELIABLE

We have the true copies in our own keeping, while heretics have corrupt and mutilated versions.

THE CHURCHES RELY ON THESE COPIES

All the Churches founded by the Apostles continue to use the same Greek Scriptures.

— Against Marcion 4.2

THE RULE OF FAITH IS PRESERVED IN THEM

The true faith is safeguarded in the authentic Greek Scriptures handed down in the Churches.

TERTULLIAN'S KEY CLAIM

"We appeal to the original copies of the Apostles, to those very copies from which every Church derives its authority."

— Against Marcion 4.2

WHERE TERTULLIAN SAID THE GREEK SCRIPTURES MIGHT BE FOUND

Tertullian did not name one library, but his statements and knowledge of the Church point to these centers.

ROME

The Apostles Peter and Paul preached and left their witness in Rome.

ASIA MINOR

Ephesus, Smyrna and other Churches where John and the Apostles labored.

CORINTH

Founded by Paul, rich in believers and early Christian writings.

ANTIOCH

A major center where believers were first called Christians (Acts 11:26).

These Churches preserved the authentic Greek Scriptures received from the Apostles and their disciples and handed them down faithfully.

WHY THIS MATTERED TO TERTULLIAN

Heresies used corrupted or altered Latin versions to support false doctrines.

Only the authentic Greek Scriptures could be trusted as the rule of faith.

The Churches received and preserved the original Greek writings.

Truth is found in the Apostolic Churches, not in private interpretations.

"Let a Christian prove all things from the testimony of the truth, and let him learn from apostolic Scripture the traditions of the Apostles."

— Tertullian, Prescription Against Heretics 36

TERTULLIAN'S WITNESS: The true and authority Scriptures were in Greek, preserved in the Churches founded by the Apostles.

From these faithful copies, the Church has handed down the Word of God to every generation.

Cyprian (c. AD 200–258) was bishop of Carthage, a bold defender of the faith, and one of the Church's greatest scriptural scholars.

THE SCILLITAN MARTYRS:

A METHOD OF OPERATION FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF INDIVIDUAL BOOKS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Faithful believers who carried the written Word at great personal cost, ensuring that Scripture reached every corner of the known world.

1. WHO WERE THE SCILLITAN MARTYRS?

A group of Christians from Scillium (modern Scilla, Calabria, Italy) who were martyred for refusing to surrender the sacred Scriptures they carried.

Their relics were venerated for their faithfulness in protecting and transporting the written Word.

2. THEIR METHOD OF OPERATION

-  Obtain or copy individual books of the New Testament.
-  Memorize key passages and hide manuscripts in containers, clothing, or cargo.
-  Travel by sea and land using established routes.
-  Deliver to trusted churches, elders, and house fellowships.
-  If caught, remain faithful—often paying with their lives.

3. THE ROUTES OF DISTRIBUTION

From Antioch, Jerusalem, and the Churches to the Nations

4. INDIVIDUAL BOOKS CARRIED & DISTRIBUTED

 Matthew (in Hebrew/Greek)	 Mark	 Luke	 John
 Acts	 Romans	 1 Corinthians	 2 Corinthians
 Galatians	 Ephesians	 Philippians	 Revelation

5. STEP-BY-STEP: HOW A BOOK TRAVELED

1 Copied or received from an apostle or trusted church.

2 Hidden and carried by faithful believers (often at great risk).

3 Traveled by sea or land using trade and missionary routes.

4 Delivered to a church, elder, or house fellowship.

5 Copied locally and passed to other churches.

6 Preserved, read, and used in worship, teaching, and devotion.

6. THE IMPACT

- ✓ Scripture spread faster than persecution.
- ✓ Every major region received the writings of the apostles.
- ✓ The Church was built on the written Word and the testimony of eyewitnesses.
- ✓ The truth was preserved by faithful men and women—then and now.

7. THEIR MARTYRDOM

They were arrested in Scillium for refusing to deny Christ or surrender the sacred books they carried.

They were tortured and executed, but their witness inspired the Church across the regions.

9. THEIR LEGACY LIVES ON

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

— 1 Corinthians 15:58

Relics of the Scillitan Martyrs were preserved and honored in the Church for centuries.

8. THE CHAIN OF TRANSMISSION

From the Apostles to Us

"All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work." — 2 Timothy 3:16-17

DIOCLETIAN

Emperor of Rome
284–305 AD

THE EDICTS OF PERSECUTION AGAINST THE CHURCH

Diocletian issued a series of edicts from 303–304 AD in an attempt to eradicate Christianity.

FIRST EDICT – 23 FEBRUARY 303

Christian churches were to be destroyed, and Scriptures were to be burned.

SECOND EDICT – MAY 303

All Christian leaders were arrested and the Church's property was confiscated.

THIRD EDICT – 24 FEBRUARY 304

All Christians were ordered to sacrifice to the Roman gods or face severe punishment.

Those who refused were imprisoned, tortured, exiled, or put to death.

"The rage of persecution may rage for a time, but the Church of God cannot be destroyed."

– Cyprian

PERSECUTION, DESTRUCTION, AND MARTYRDOM

THE EDICTS OF DIOCLETIAN

A DARK TIME • A FAITHFUL WITNESS • AN ETERNAL LEGACY

"We must not think that the sufferings of this present time are worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

– Romans 8:18

DESTRUCTION OF BIBLES AND CHURCH RECORDS

Churches were torn down, and thousands of copies of the Holy Scriptures, along with precious records and writings, were burned in the public squares.

THE MARTYRDOM OF CYPRIAN OF CARTHAGE – 14 SEPTEMBER 258 AD

Bishop, pastor, and father in the faith, Cyprian refused to deny Christ. He was beheaded outside the city of Carthage.

"Thanks be to God who has counted me worthy to be offered this day for His people."

– Cyprian,
just before his martyrdom

CYPRIAN OF CARTHAGE

c. 200–258 AD

Bishop of Carthage, North Africa, and a faithful disciple of Tertullian.

Wrote 80 letters to bishops, priests, deacons, and congregations across Africa, Europe, and beyond.

Defended the unity of the Church, the authority of Scripture, and the truth of the Gospel.

CYPRIAN'S 2 ALLUSIONS TO THE JOHANNINE COMMA (1 JOHN 5:7)

LETTER 73.21 (TO FIDUS)

Cyprian writes of the three that bear witness in heaven:

*"For there are three that bear record in heaven,
the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost:
and these three are one."*

LETTER 3.4 (TO DONATUS)

Cyprian again affirms the same triune testimony:

*"For there are three that bear record in heaven,
the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost:
and these three are one."*

These are the only two explicit allusions in his writings to this sacred testimony.

THE CHURCH WAS PERSECUTED,
THE SCRIPTURES WERE ATTACKED,
BUT THE TRUTH COULD NOT BE SILENCED.

THROUGH THE FAITHFUL WITNESS OF MEN LIKE CYPRIAN,
THE WORD OF GOD WAS PRESERVED,
AND THE CHURCH WAS STRENGTHENED.

THE DEVASTATION OF DIOCLETIAN'S PERSECUTION

THE MOST SEVERE PERSECUTION IN CHURCH HISTORY

Emperor Diocletian (284–305 AD) launched a systematic, empire-wide campaign to eradicate Christianity. His edicts targeted churches, Scriptures, clergy, and believers—attempting to destroy the faith in every corner of the Roman Empire.

EDICTS AGAINST CHRISTIANS

- 303 AD – Destruction of churches and Scriptures of clergy
- 304 AD – Sacrifices to the gods enforced; closure of Christian gatherings
- 305 AD – Continued enforcement until the abdication of Diocletian

THE GOAL:

To destroy Christianity completely from the Roman Empire.

HOW LONG DID IT LAST?

"Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." — 2 Timothy 3:12

THE PERSECUTION SPREAD ACROSS THE ENTIRE ROMAN EMPIRE

THE EXTENT OF DEVASTATION (ESTIMATES)

CHURCHES DESTROYED

Estimated 1,500 – 2,000

Church buildings were torn down or burned to the ground throughout the empire.

MANUSCRIPTS DESTROYED

Estimated 200,000 – 500,000+

Holy Scriptures and Christian writings were burned in public places. The loss of ancient Christian literature was immense.

CHRISTIANS MARTYRED

Estimated 250,000 – 1,000,000+

Believers of all ages and stations—bishops, priests, deacons, men, women, and children—were martyred for their faith in Christ.

METHODS OF PERSECUTION

Destruction of churches and Christian property

Burning of Scriptures and Christian books

Imprisonment and hard labor

Torture and cruel punishments

Execution by sword, fire, wild beasts, and more

EYEWITNESS ACCOUNTS

EUSEBIUS (Church History 8.2–3)

"A great multitude of martyrs in various places... endured every kind of torture, being crowned with immortal glory."

LACTANTIUS (On the Deaths of the Persecutors 48)

"The persecutors thought they could extinguish the name of Christians, but the more they killed, the more they increased."

CYPRIAN OF CARTHAGE (Epistle 55.24)

"The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church." (Written during this period of suffering.)

THE LASTING IMPACT

- ✓ The Church was scattered but not destroyed.
- ✓ Christian faith grew stronger through martyrdom.
- ✓ Many of the greatest saints and writings came from this era of suffering.
- ✓ The persecution ended when Constantine issued the Edict of Milan in 313 AD, bringing relief and religious tolerance.

THE PERSECUTION FAILED

What was meant for evil, God used for good. The Church emerged stronger, purer, and more united in faith.

"BE THOU FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH, AND I WILL GIVE THEE A CROWN OF LIFE." — REVELATION 2:10

Integrity to God, Loyalty to Empire

THE TEST OF LOYALTY

Constantius Chlorus summoned his officers and gave them a challenge:

When the choices were made, Constantius revealed it was a test. He dismissed those who sacrificed and honored those who refused.

“THOSE WHO ARE LOYAL TO THEIR GOD WILL ALSO BE LOYAL TO THEIR EMPEROR.”

He entrusted them with the protection of his person and his government, valuing them far more highly than the richest treasures.

HIS PROTECTION OF SPAIN

During Diocletian's persecution, Constantius was given command of the West, including the province of Spain.

He shielded the churches from severe persecution and allowed Christians freedom to worship.

Spain became a place of refuge and stability for believers.

ROMAN EMPIRE

Because of his fair and moderate rule, many in Spain came to respect him. This period of peace and protection left a lasting impact on the Christian faith in the Iberian lands.

THE LESSON THAT LASTS

THE CHALLENGE

Constantius gave his officials a choice:

Sacrifice to the Roman gods and keep your position

Refuse to sacrifice and lose your office

THE TEST

Some chose to sacrifice to keep their offices. Others refused, choosing faith over position and honor.

THE REWARD

Constantius dismissed those who sacrificed and honored those who refused.

“Those who are loyal to their God will also be loyal to their emperor.”

He entrusted them with high office and the protection of the Empire.

FAITHFUL TO GOD. TRUSTWORTHY TO THE EMPIRE.

A legacy of integrity. A foundation for the future of Constantine the Great.

CONSTANTINE BEFORE THE BATTLE

THE MAN, THE EMPEROR, THE JOURNEY

"Before he won the greatest victory of his life, Constantine was a soldier, a leader, and a seeker of truth."

HIS ORIGINS

- Born: 272 AD in Naissus (modern-day Niš, Serbia)
- Father: Constantius Chlorus, a Roman military officer
- Mother: Helena
- Grew up in the court of Emperor Diocletian

THE DIVIDED ROMAN EMPIRE

After Diocletian's reforms, the Empire was ruled by four leaders (the Tetrarchy). Constantine was Caesar in the West under Maximian.

CONSTANTINE THE GREAT
272–337 AD
Future Emperor of Rome

A LIFE PREPARING FOR GREATNESS

Military Training

Raised in a military family, Constantine was trained in leadership, strategy, and the art of war.

Proven Leader

He served in many campaigns and was known for his courage, discipline, and ability to inspire loyalty.

Rising Through the Ranks

He became a trusted commander under Diocletian and was eventually appointed Caesar in the West in 293 AD.

Ruler of Gaul and Britain

As Caesar, he governed Gaul (modern France and Germany) and Britain, securing the borders and winning respect.

A Man of Ambition and Vision

He dreamed of unity and greatness for Rome—but the empire was divided, and power was not his yet.

HIS SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

Constantine was not a Christian at first.

- He respected all gods and observed traditional Roman religion.
- Yet, he was drawn to the God of the Christians by the faith and courage of believers.

THE WORLD AROUND HIM

The empire was in turmoil:

- Corruption in leadership
- Heavy taxes and unrest
- Persecutions of Christians under emperors like Diocletian and Galerius

A MOMENT BEFORE DESTINY

On the eve of the Battle of the Milvian Bridge (312 AD), Constantine was a man with many questions, facing a powerful enemy.

He was about to encounter the God who would change his life — and the course of history.

BEFORE THE VICTORY, HE WAS...

A trained warrior

A rising leader

A ruler with ambition

A man searching for truth

A servant of Rome—soon to become a servant of Christ

"GREATER IS HE THAT IS IN YOU, THAN HE THAT IS IN THE WORLD."

— 1 JOHN 4:4

CAPTURE OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE

FROM CIVIL WAR
TO PEACE AND UNITY

By 324 AD, Constantine had defeated his rivals and became the sole ruler of the Roman Empire. He brought peace, order, and stability.

THE PERSECUTION OF THE CHURCH

- ✗ Christians were hunted, imprisoned, tortured, and executed.
- ✗ Churches were destroyed.
- ✗ Holy Scriptures were burned.
- ✗ Believers were denied rights and forced to renounce their faith.

 But the Church endured through the faith of martyrs and the power of God's Word.

A LEGACY THAT ENDURES

-  Constantine's victory marked a turning point in history.
-  The Church was no longer in hiding but commissioned to fulfill its mission.
-  The Scriptures were preserved, copied, and spread throughout the Empire.
-  The Gospel advanced to the ends of the earth.

LAW FOR THE CLERGY 325 AD

"It is fitting that those who serve divine things should be free from earthly burdens."

THROUGH HIS EDICTS, CONSTANTINE RESTORED THE CHURCH, PROTECTED THE SCRIPTURES, AND LAID THE FOUNDATION FOR THE GROWTH OF CHRISTIANITY THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

"We ought to give thanks to the Almighty God, who has granted to us and to all under our rule the opportunity to follow the divine things."

PRODUCING THE SCRIPTURES: THE FIFTY BIBLES

In a letter preserved by Eusebius (Life of Constantine, IV, 36–37), Constantine requested:

"FIFTY COPIES

DIVINE SCRIPTURES"

THE IMPERIAL COMMAND

- ✦ Written on finest prepared parchment
- ✦ By skilled and accurate scribes
- ✦ In clear, beautiful script
- ✦ At imperial expense
- ✦ For the churches of Constantinople

"Let the cost be

— Constantine

✦ These were not printed (the printing press came centuries later), but carefully hand-copied codices—a priceless investment in God's Word for generations to come. ✦

EARLY WITNESS: THE SCRIPTURES WERE WIDELY AVAILABLE

John Chrysostom (c. 349–407)

In his homilies, Chrysostom repeatedly urged Christians to read the Scriptures at home, assuming that many believers owned copies.

"How is it that you have the Scriptures

ARIUS (c. 256 – c. 336 AD)

THE MAN, HIS TEACHINGS, AND THE FOLLOWING HE AMASSED

A CONTROVERSIAL TEACHER WHO SPARKED A WORLDWIDE CONTROVERSY

WHO WAS ARIUS?

Arius was a presbyter and teacher in Alexandria, Egypt.

A brilliant speaker with a powerful personality, he rose to prominence for his teachings that challenged the deity of Christ and the teachings of the Church.

"There was when he was, when he was not; and before he was born, he was not."

– Arius

ARIUS' TEACHINGS

Arius denied the eternal deity of Jesus Christ.
His key beliefs included:

-  Christ was a created being, not eternal. "There was when He was not."
-  The Son was inferior to the Father. The Father alone is unbegotten and eternal.
-  Christ was created by the Father out of nothing.
-  Christ was the highest of creatures, but not equal with God.
-  Salvation is through Christ as God's instrument, not because of His deity.

Condemned by the Church

Arius' teachings were condemned at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD, which affirmed that Jesus Christ is "of one substance with the Father" (homoousios).

"But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom." – Hebrews 1:8

THE FOLLOWING ARIUS AMASSED

Through his eloquence and political connections, Arius gained a large and influential following.

Many bishops, priests, and deacons across the Empire

Support from several influential leaders and civil authorities

Widespread acceptance in churches of the East

Thousands of clergy and laypeople

His teachings spread rapidly, especially in:
Egypt • Palestine • Syria • Asia Minor • Thrace

GEOGRAPHICAL SPREAD OF ARIANISM (4TH CENTURY)

Arianism became the dominant belief in many regions for decades, challenging orthodox Christianity throughout the Roman Empire.

PROMINENT SUPPORTERS OF ARIUS

- ✦ Eusebius of Nicomedia – Bishop who openly supported Arius
- ✦ Eusebius of Caesarea (in early years) – Initially associated with Arian sympathies
- ✦ The Emperor Constantine (at times) – Showed periods of favor toward Arian positions
- ✦ Many Eastern Bishops – Especially in the 4th century

CONSTANTINE THE GREAT

THE IMPACT OF ARIANISM

Caused great division in the Church.

Led to numerous councils and creeds to defend the true faith.

Resulted in exile and persecution of orthodox bishops.

Persisted for over a century in many parts of the world.

ARIUS' LEGACY

- ✦ His ideas were rejected by the Church but continued to influence many.
- ✦ Arianism was condemned but not immediately eradicated.
- ✦ His controversy led the Church to clearly articulate the deity of Christ in the Nicene Creed.

The Church stood firm:
"Christ is true God from true God."

"FOR WHO HATH KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD? OR WHO HATH BEEN HIS COUNSELLOR? OR WHO HATH FIRST GIVEN TO HIM, AND IT SHALL BE RECOMPENSED UNTO HIM AGAIN?"

– ROMANS 11:34-35

THE DEATH OF ARIUS

ANSWERED PRAYER AND DIVINE JUSTICE

ALEXANDER OF ALEXANDRIA
c. 250 – 328 AD
Defender of the Faith
Champion of Christ's Deity

ALEXANDER'S PRAYER AND ARIUS' SUDDEN END

When Arius continued to spread his false teachings and cause division in the Church, Alexander, bishop of Alexandria, lifted up his heart in prayer to God:

"O Lord, who sittest in the heavens, look down, I beseech Thee, and visibly lay open the impiety of this man."

– Socrates Scholasticus
(Church History, Book 1, Chapter 8)

ARIUS' SUDDEN AND MISERABLE DEATH

That very night, Arius was struck with severe intestinal illness. He suffered terribly and died in great agony, as many witnessed.

"And immediately he was seized with violent pain in his bowels."

– Socrates Scholasticus

"The Lord knoweth them that are His."

– 2 Timothy 2:19

A LESSON REMEMBERED

Arius, who denied the deity of Christ, was silenced by the justice of God. The Church gave glory to the Lord, who defends His truth and hears the prayers of His servants.

THE COUNCIL OF NICAEA (325 AD)

CONSTANTINE AND THE BISHOPS UNITED FOR TRUTH

CONSTANTINE THE GREAT
c. 272 – 337 AD
Roman Emperor
Defender of Christianity

Desiring unity and truth in the Church, Emperor Constantine called for a great council of bishops from throughout the Empire to meet in Nicaea, Bithynia.

Over 300 bishops attended from East and West.

They examined the teachings of Arius and his followers.

The divinity of Christ was affirmed.

The Nicene Creed was written to stand for all generations.

THE OUTCOME

Arius and his teachings were condemned.

The full divinity of Jesus Christ was declared.

Church unity was strengthened.

The truth of the Gospel was preserved.

THE NICENE CREED DECLARED:

"We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made."

A MONUMENTAL MOMENT IN HISTORY

The Council of Nicaea was a turning point in Church history. By God's guidance, truth prevailed and the foundation was laid for the Church that would endure.

"GREAT PEACE HAD ALL THEY WHICH LOVED THY LAW: AND NOTHING SHALL OFFEND THEM." – PSALM 119:165

CONSTANTINE II
c. 316 – 340 AD
Son and Successor

After the death of Constantine the Great in 337 AD, his son Constantine II became one of the rulers of the Roman Empire.

RUFINAS: THE HISTORIAN'S RECORD

Rufinas, a respected Church historian of the 4th century, wrote after Constantine's death, preserving an account that reveals a tragic turn in the imperial legacy.

"Constantius [Constantine II] was led astray by the heresy of the Arians, and did many things contrary to the faith which his father had held."

– Rufinas

Church History, Book 10,
Chapter 37

THE CONVERSION TO ARIANISM

According to Rufinas, after Constantine the Great—a defender of Orthodox Christianity—had died, his son Constantine II embraced Arianism.

ARIANISM

-  Denied the full divinity of Christ.
-  Taught that the Son was created by the Father.
-  Spread division within the Church and the Empire.

"For there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ." – Galatians 1:7

A SHIFT IN IMPERIAL POLICY

Under Constantine II, support for Arian bishops increased, and Orthodox Christians faced pressure.

-  Arian bishops were favored.
-  Orthodox leaders were removed or exiled.
-  Church unity was shattered.
-  The legacy of Constantine the Great was overshadowed.

RUFINAS: A FAITHFUL WITNESS

Rufinas was not an eye-witness to these events but recorded earlier accounts with integrity so future generations would know the truth.

His writings help us see that even within the highest circles of power, the gift of faith can be rejected, and the truth of Christ can be compromised.

A LESSON FOR EVERY GENERATION

The story of Constantine II reminds us that:

-  True faith is a gift from God, not guaranteed by heritage or position.
-  Heresy can arise even in times of Christian power.
-  We must hold fast to the truth of Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
-  The Lord preserves His Church, despite the failures of men.

The Truth Endures
Empires rise and fall, but the word of God stands forever.

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

– Hebrews 13:8

"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity." – 1 Corinthians 16:13-14

ARIANISM UNDER CONSTANTINE II (337–361 AD)

HOW ARIANISM SPREAD THROUGH THE ROMAN WORLD—SPAIN REMAINED FAITHFUL

After the death of Constantine the Great (337 AD), his sons divided the Empire.

Under Constantine II, Arianism became the official religion of the Empire and spread throughout the world—EXCEPT IN SPAIN.

THE RISE OF ARIANISM

- ✠ Arius (c. 256–336 AD) taught that Jesus Christ was not eternal, but created by the Father.

CONSTANTIUS II AND THE PROTECTION OF THE CHURCH IN SPAIN

A Haven of Orthodoxy While the Arians Looked Elsewhere

While Arianism spread in many parts of the Roman Empire, Constantius II (r. 337–361) showed favor to the orthodox Church in Hispania (Spain), granting her peace, stability, and freedom from Arian interference. The Arians, focused on other regions, largely left Spain untouched.

CONSTANTIUS II: A DEFENDER OF THE CHURCH IN SPAIN

"Constantius granted many privileges to the Churches in Spain... He confirmed their possessions, gave them liberty of worship, and showed great favor to the Catholic faith."

— Sozomen, Ecclesiastical History (Book 2, Chapter 24)

- ✚ Confirmed the Church's rights and property in Spain
- ✚ Protected orthodox bishops and Church councils
- ✚ Allowed the Church to flourish without Arian interference
- ✚ Spain remained a stronghold of Catholic (Trinitarian) faith

CONSTANTIUS PROTECTED SPAIN DURING DIOCLETIAN'S PERSECUTION (c. 303–311)

While Diocletian raged elsewhere, Constantius governed the West and ensured that Spain was largely spared from the worst of the persecutions, allowing the Church to survive and grow.

THE CHURCH FLOURISHED IN SPAIN

Major councils held in Spain

Many saints and theologians arose

Orthodox teaching preserved and handed down

The faith remained pure and uncontaminated

THE ARIANS: DISINTERESTED IN SPAIN

- ✗ Arians focused their efforts in the East—especially in Constantinople, Alexandria, and other key centers.
- ✗ Spain held little strategic interest for their cause.
- ✗ Theological disputes and political struggles kept them occupied elsewhere.
- ✗ The Church in Spain was left in peace.

"The Arians... made no headway in Spain, for they were wholly taken up with their own contentions elsewhere."

— Theodoret, Ecclesiastical History (Book 2, Chapter 20)

THE LASTING IMPACT

- ✚ Spain became a beacon of orthodoxy in the West.
- ✚ The Visigoths later adopted the Catholic faith under King Reccared (589), building on this foundation.
- ✚ The Mozarabic Church preserved the faith through centuries of turmoil.
- ✚ A legacy of faithful witness endures to this day.

THE CANON OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Augustine received the Old Testament canon of the Church, which included the Deuterocanonical books (Tobit, Judith, Wisdom, Sirach, Baruch, 1–2 Maccabees, and additions to Esther and Daniel), just as it had been used in the Septuagint and affirmed in the Councils of Hippo (393) and Carthage (397, 419).

“The Church reads these books for example of life and instruction of manners; not to establish the authority of the Church.”

— Augustine

“In all things may the Truth be glorified; in Whom we live and move and have our being.”

— Augustine

ONE FAITH. ONE SCRIPTURE. ONE CHURCH.

“To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” — Isaiah 8:20

ST. JEROME
(c. 347–420)

Scholar, monk, and translator who dedicated his life to giving the Church a faithful Latin Bible.

HOW JEROME'S TRANSLATION BECAME KNOWN AS THE VULGATE

THE BIBLE FOR THE PEOPLE. THE STANDARD FOR THE CHURCH.

Jerome's translation of the Scriptures from the original Hebrew and Greek into Latin became the most trusted Bible of the Church for over a thousand years.

"I have not followed anyone, but the truth itself, and I have translated nothing but what I found in the original."

— St. Jerome

THE JOURNEY TO THE VULGATE

382–385

CALLED TO ROME

Jerome came to Rome as secretary to Pope Damasus I, who commissioned him to revise the existing Latin Gospels (the "Old Latin").

385–386

TO BETHLEHEM

Jerome retired to a monastery in Bethlehem to devote himself to study of Hebrew and Greek and to translate the Scriptures from the original texts.

386–390

TRANSLATING THE BIBLE

He translated the Gospels, Psalms, and much of the Old Testament from Hebrew, and the New Testament from Greek, striving for accuracy and clarity.

390–405

REVISION AND COMPLETION

Jerome revised and completed the entire Bible, harmonizing his earlier translations into one consistent and faithful Latin text.

405–420

WIDELY COPIED AND USED

Monasteries and churches throughout the West copied and used Jerome's Bible more than any other. It became the Church's standard Scripture.

LATE 4TH–6TH CENTURIES

KNOWN AS THE VULGATE

"Vulgate" comes from the Latin word vulgata, meaning "that which has been made common." It became the official Bible of the Latin Church for centuries.

WHAT DOES "VULGATE" MEAN?

The Latin word vulgata means "that which has been made common" or "generally received."

Jerome's translation became the commonly read and accepted Bible of the Church.

POPE DAMASUS I

"Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ."

He trusted Jerome to prepare a Bible that the whole Church could rely on.

FROM BETHLEHEM TO THE WORLD

From monasteries in Palestine, the Vulgate spread throughout Europe, North Africa, and beyond.

THE VULGATE'S LASTING IMPACT

The standard Bible of the Latin Church for over 1,000 years.

Used in the Mass, theology, and Church teaching.

The foundation for many later translations, including the King James Bible.

KEY FEATURES OF JEROME'S VULGATE

FAITHFUL TO ORIGINALS
Translated from Hebrew and Greek, not from earlier Latin texts.

ACCURATE AND CLEAR
Sought both truth to the text and clarity for the reader.

UNIFIED TEXT
Brought together various versions into one consistent Latin Bible.

USED EVERYWHERE
Accepted by councils, theologians, and the people of God.

A LEGACY THAT ENDURES

Through Jerome's dedication, the Word of God was preserved in a form the Church could trust, read, and proclaim for generations.

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." — Psalm 119:105

ONE MAN'S LABOR. ONE CHURCH'S TREASURE. GOD'S WORD FOR THE WORLD.

Used in the Churches

Read publicly in worship and instruction.

Universal Acceptance

Received across many regions and churches.

- Did not meet the test of divine inspiration

Examples of Excluded Writings

THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER.

"Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away."

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." – 2 Timothy 3:16-17

JEROME'S LAMENT: HIS TRANSLATION ALTERED, THE APOCRYPHA READDED

"I have translated faithfully... but I see with grief that what I have done is being corrected by many." — Jerome (Letter 104.14)

JEROME'S FAITHFUL LABOR

Jerome spent over 30 years translating the Scriptures from the original Hebrew and Greek into Latin, seeking accuracy and truth for the Church.

"I have not followed anyone, but in Hebrew truth itself."

— Jerome (Letter 57.6)

JEROME'S COMPLAINTS: THE VULGATE ALTERED

Jerome repeatedly complained that his translation was being changed without his knowledge or consent.

"Many have presumed to correct my labors, and have not only removed the words I had inserted, but have even added their own."

— Jerome (Letter 82.1)

"What I have translated faithfully, I see with grief corrupted."

— Jerome (Letter 104.14)

THE APOCRYPHA REMOVED... THEN READDED

Jerome and other Church leaders agreed the Apocrypha were not inspired Scripture and should not be read as such.

But over time, pressures grew to restore these books—first in some manuscripts, then in official lists.

These books returned to many Latin Bibles and councils, eventually being accepted as canonical by the Roman Church.

JEROME'S WARNINGS IGNORED

Jerome warned that adding human writings to God's Word would lead souls astray.

"I do not admit the Apocryphal books to be on the same level with the canonical Scriptures, but only useful for edification of the people."

— Jerome (Prologue to the Books of Solomon)

Still, Church authorities and copyists slowly reintroduced them into the text.

A TIMELINE OF CORRUPTION

382–405	405	5th–7th Centuries	6th Century	1546
Jerome translates the Bible into Latin (Vulgate).	Jerome completes the Vulgate and warns against alteration.	Copyists begin changing the text and adding explanatory notes.	Apocrypha books begin appearing in Latin manuscripts again.	Council of Trent declares the Apocrypha as canonical Scripture.

"It is not the power of the truth that is in danger, but the truth itself."

— Jerome (Letter 125.9)

JEROME'S HEARTACHE

Jerome died in sorrow, seeing his life's work misused and the Church led into compromise.

"I am like one beating the air, for I see the Apostle Paul sold in the market."

— Jerome (Letter 108.12)

Yet Jerome's faithful stand continues to inspire generations who love God's pure Word.

JEROME STOOD FOR BIBLICAL TRUTH

He returned to the original Hebrew and Greek.

He rejected the Apocrypha as uninspired.

He longed for the Church to be rooted in truth, not tradition.

"Let us hold fast to the unity of the Church and the truth of the Lord."

— Jerome (Letter 66.8)

THE LESSON FOR TODAY

- † God's Word must never be altered by human hands.
- † Tradition must never replace Scripture.
- † We must test everything by the original truth.
- † The Church must return to the authority of the inspired Word alone.

HIS LEGACY REMAINS

Jerome's tears were not in vain. The Lord preserved His Word, and His truth endures forever.

"The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever."

— Isaiah 40:8

"Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth." — John 17:17

CHURCH FATHERS WHO ACCUSED THE ARIANS OF DESTROYING RECORDS

THE TESTIMONY OF HISTORY • THE PRESERVATION OF TRUTH

"The Arians... not content with persuading by false reasoning, also thought it lawful to destroy the very records of the truth."

— Socrates Scholasticus, Ecclesiastical History, Book I, Chapter 5

THEY WROTE, THEY WITNESSED, THE CHURCH REMEMBERS

These early Church Fathers and historians recorded how the Arians opposed the truth, not only with their words, but also by the destruction and alteration of sacred writings.

Socrates Scholasticus
c. 380 – c. 439 AD

"The Arians... not content with persuading by false reasoning, also thought it lawful to destroy the very records of the truth."

— Ecclesiastical History, Book I, Chapter 5

Sozomen
c. 400 – c. 450 AD

"They (the Arians) everywhere endeavored to destroy the Catholic books and even the very copies of the Scriptures."

— Ecclesiastical History, Book I, Chapter 8

Theodoret of Cyrrhus
c. 393 – c. 458 AD

"They destroyed the divine Scriptures and the writings of the Fathers, and would not suffer them to remain."

— Ecclesiastical History, Book I, Chapter 7

Rufinus of Aquileia
c. 345 – c. 410 AD

"The Arians burned the books of the Catholics and destroyed the holy records entrusted to their care."

— Ecclesiastical History, (Book not specified)

Athanasius of Alexandria
c. 296 – 373 AD

"The Arians not only corrupt the doctrine, but also endeavor to burn the books of the true believers."

— Orations Against the Arians, Oration I.

Hilary of Poitiers
c. 310 – 367 AD

"They (the Arians) wish to blot out even the memory of the truth by destroying the sacred books."

— On the Trinity, Book X, Chapter 57

WHY THEY DESTROYED RECORDS

- To erase the truth of Christ's divinity
- To silence opposing voices
- To control what the Church could read and believe
- To spread their heresy without challenge

"Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away."

— Matthew 24:35

THE CHURCH REMAINED STEADFAST

Though books were burned and records destroyed, the Church preserved the truth through faithful witnesses, copied
Scriptures, and God's providence.
The Word of God endures forever.

38

THE ARIANS SOUGHT TO DESTROY THE RECORDS; GOD PRESERVED THE TRUTH.

"Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever." — Psalm 119:160

“The Father,

The Arian bishops of the Council of Sirmium formulated
27 canons rejecting the doctrine of the Trinity and the divinity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

At one point, the doctrine of the Trinity was abandoned and handed over to the Arians.

COUNCIL OF SIRMIIUM: ARIAN COUNCIL (A.D. 351)

Rejecting the doctrine of the Trinity, they declared that the Son was not of the same substance [with the Father], but that “he is like the Father.” They formulated this confession of faith against the Nicene doctrine.

THE DESTRUCTION OF MANUSCRIPTS IN EARLY CHURCH LIBRARIES

The Loss Was Real – But God's Word Endured

WHY WERE MANUSCRIPTS DESTROYED?

"Many excellent books and very ancient copies perished in the flames."
– Epiphanius (Haer. 1.16.6)

HERESY & FALSE TEACHING

Heresies often led to the destruction of orthodox Christian writings.

PERSECUTION & WAR

Christian libraries were targeted during persecutions and invasions.

IGNORANCE & NEGLECT

Many were lost through carelessness, decay, or simple neglect.

IDEOLOGICAL OR POLITICAL MOTIVES

Rulers and groups destroyed texts that opposed their beliefs.

A PAINFUL REALITY IN CHURCH HISTORY

From the early centuries, many precious manuscripts were destroyed in church libraries, monasteries, and centers of learning.

- ✦ Libraries in Caesarea and Jerusalem were burned.
- ✦ Many works of early Christian writers are now lost forever.
- ✦ Countless copies of Scripture and church writings were reduced to ashes.

THE CONSEQUENCES OF LOSS

Loss of historical records and theological works.

Fewer writings from early Church Fathers survive.

Gaps in our knowledge of the early Church.

A reminder of our dependence on God's sovereignty.

"Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away." Matthew 24:35

NOTABLE INSTANCES

3RD CENTURY CAESAREA, PALESTINE

Origen's library was reportedly destroyed during the persecution of Decius.

4TH CENTURY THEOLOGICAL CONFLICTS

Writings of Athanasius and others were burned by Arian opponents.

5TH CENTURY LIBRARY OF SERAPEUM

The great library in Alexandria was destroyed in the chaos of religious and political strife.

5TH-7TH CENTURIES INVASIONS & WARS

Persian, Vandal, and Arab invasions led to the destruction of many Christian libraries.

6TH-7TH CENTURIES 8TH-9TH CENTURIES

Iconoclasts destroyed many books and manuscripts they considered "idolatrous."

YET, GOD PRESERVED HIS WORD

Faithful believers continued to copy and preserve the Scriptures.

Manuscripts were hidden, carried to safety, and shared across lands.

God's Word was never completely lost—His promise stands firm forever.

HUMAN EFFORT MAY FAIL, BUT GOD'S PURPOSE WILL NEVER BE THWARTED.

Though many manuscripts were lost, God raised up copyists, preserved the canon, and ensured His Word would be available to every generation.

WRITTEN
The Apostles and early believers wrote the Scriptures.

PRESERVED
Believers copied and protected the manuscripts faithfully.

TRANSMITTED
Scripture traveled across regions and generations.

TRANSLATED & PRINTED
Through the ages, God's Word reached more and more people.

TO EVERY NATION, TO EVERY GENERATION
The Gospel continues to transform lives around the world.

THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER.

THEODOSIUS I

DEFENDER OF THE FAITH • RESTORER OF ORTHODOXY
EMPEROR OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE 379–395 AD

THE REFORMS OF THEODOSIUS I

1. ESTABLISHED NICENE CHRISTIANITY AS THE OFFICIAL FAITH

Theodosius I made Nicene Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire, uniting the empire under orthodox faith.

2. SUPPRESSED PAGANISM

He prohibited pagan sacrifices, closed many pagan temples, and ended state support for pagan cults and festivals.

3. STRENGTHENED THE CHURCH

He elevated the authority of bishops, supported Church discipline, and granted the Church legal privileges and protections.

4. CONVENED THE FIRST COUNCIL OF CONSTANTINOPLE (381)

He convened this ecumenical council, which reaffirmed the Nicene Creed and declared the full divinity of the Holy Spirit.

“WE DESIRE THAT ALL THE PEOPLES SUBJECT TO OUR CLEMENCY AND MODERATION SHOULD FOLLOW THAT RELIGION WHICH HAS BEEN DELIVERED TO THE ROMANS
BY THE DIVINE APOSTLE PETER.”

— EDICT OF
THESSALONICA (380 AD)

BY IMPERIAL LAW AND DIVINE PURPOSE,
THE CHURCH WAS UNITED,
HERESY WAS CONDEMNED, AND ORTHODOXY RESTORED.

MAJOR IMPERIAL LAWS FOR THE CHURCH

Laws protected Church property and clergy from abuse.

Orthodox bishops were to be supported and heretics were to be excluded from Church leadership.

Church disputes were to be resolved according to the teaching of the Nicene faith.

The unity of the Church was made a matter of public order and salvation.

The Empire and the Church worked together for the moral and spiritual good of the people.

ARIANISM: A THREAT TO THE FAITH

Arianism denied the full divinity of Christ, teaching that “there was a time when the Son was not.” This heresy spread widely, dividing the Church and threatening the unity of the Empire.

ARIAN BELIEF:
“THE SON WAS CREATED BY
THE FATHER
AND IS NOT ETERNAL.”

~~NOT

SUBSTANCE
WITH THE FATHER.~~

DIVISION • CONFUSION • SPIRITUAL DARKNESS

THE CHURCH'S RETURN TO ORTHODOXY

Through councils, faithful bishops, and the leadership of Theodosius I, the Church returned to the truth of the Gospel and was united in the Nicene faith.

UNITY • TRUTH • SALVATION

NICENE FAITH:
“THE SON IS BEGOTTEN,
NOT MADE,

THEODOSIUS II

REFORMS THAT STRENGTHENED THE CHURCH AND THE FAITH (408–450 AD)

Theodosius II was a devout Christian emperor who protected orthodoxy, strengthened the Church, and guided the Empire with justice and godliness.

1. THE COUNCIL OF EPHESUS (431 AD)

Convened by Theodosius II and affirmed that Mary is Theotokos (God-bearer). Strengthened the authority of ecumenical councils and preserved the unity of Christ's person.

2. IMPERIAL ENFORCEMENT OF ORTHODOXY

Laws were enacted against heresies such as Arianism, Eutomanism, Manichaeism and other sects. Heretics were banned from public meetings and offices in the Empire. Church property and civil rights were protected.

3. THE THEODOSIAN CODE (438 AD)

Compiled earlier imperial laws into one official code. Included laws on Church property, clergy privileges, episcopal authority, protection of orthodox worship, and regulation of heretics and Jews.

4. GREATER AUTHORITY OF BISHOPS

Bishops served as judges in civil cases (by agreement of both parties). Episcopal courts gained prestige and bishops had greater influence in local government, charity, and discipline.

5. SUPPORT FOR MONASTICISM

Monasteries flourished throughout the Empire with imperial protection and legal recognition. Monks became leaders in prayer, learning, and the copying of Scripture.

"I DESIRE THAT WE SHOULD LIVE IN THE RELIGION DELIVERED TO US BY THE DIVINE APOSTLES.
HANDLED DOWN TO US BY THE APOSTLES."
— THEODOSIUS II

1. THE COUNCIL OF EPHESUS (431 AD)

recognized for their prayer, learning, and copying of Scripture.

6. BUILDING AND RESTORATION OF CHURCHES

Many churches were built or restored, especially in Constantinople, Thessalonica,
Antioch, and the East.

7. GROWTH OF THE PATRIARCHATE OF CONSTANTINOPLE

The see of Constantinople gained great prestige and influence in the East, though always in communion with Alexandria and other ancient sees.

8. REGULATION OF CLERGY AND CHURCH AFFAIRS

ARIANISM: A DIVISIVE ERROR

Arius taught that the Son was "created" and "not of the same substance as the Father."

THEODOSIUS II'S STAND
He upheld the Nicene Faith that the Son is eternal, divine, and of the same substance
(homoousios) with the Father.

ERASMUS OF ROTTERDAM (1466–1536)

HUMANIST • SCHOLAR • REFORMER

A MAN ON A MISSION TO RECOVER THE TRUE LATIN OF JEROME

Erasmus believed that the Church must return to the pure sources of Scripture.

"My chief desire in this edition is to restore Jerome to his own words."

— Erasmus

HIS MISSION

Erasmus set out to recover the original Latin translation of the Bible made by St. Jerome (the Vulgate), corrupted over centuries by copyists' errors, later additions, and ignorance.

ST. JEROME
(347–420 AD)

Translator of the Bible into Latin at the request of Pope Damasus I. His work, the Vulgate, was the authoritative Bible of the Western Church for over 1000 years.

THE PROBLEM ERASMUS FOUND

CORRUPTED MANUSCRIPTS

Medieval Latin Bibles were filled with errors, inconsistencies, and later additions. Erasmus saw that the Vulgate had been neglected and distorted.

LOSS OF JEROME'S TRUE WORDS

Many manuscripts differed from Jerome's original translation. Erasmus determined to return to the most ancient and faithful texts.

NEED FOR RENEWAL

Erasmus believed the Church and her people deserved a Bible that was accurate, clear, and faithful to the original.

HIS WORK AND ACCOMPLISHMENT

Erasmus compared hundreds of manuscripts, including some very old ones, and produced a revised Latin New Testament (1516) based on the best available Greek texts and the most reliable Latin manuscripts.

- Returned to Jerome's original Latin as closely as possible.
- Corrected thousands of copying errors.
- Emphasized clarity, accuracy, and fidelity.
- His text became the standard for all later Latin Bibles, including the editions used at the Council of Trent.

"Not to innovate, but to restore."

— Erasmus

LASTING IMPACT

- His work prepared the way for the Reformation.
- Preserved Jerome's legacy.
- Strengthened the Church with a more faithful Bible.
- His Latin New Testament remains a monumental achievement of Christian scholarship.

– Erasmus

ERASMUS' MISSION

Erasmus sought to purify the Bible by returning to the original Greek.

He believed that the pure Greek text was the foundation of Jerome's Latin Vulgate.

By comparing manuscripts, he hoped to remove corruption and restore the truth.

1 THE SEARCH FOR TRUTH

Erasmus traveled and corresponded across Europe, seeking ancient manuscripts of the Greek New Testament.

- He visited libraries and monastic collections.
- He asked scholars and friends to help locate the best Greek texts.
- His goal: a text as close as possible to the Apostles.

2 THE DISCOVERY OF GREEK MANUSCRIPTS

Erasmus obtained several important Greek manuscripts, including:

- Codex 1513 (later called Codex Erasmus)
- Manuscripts from Italy
- Other ancient Greek texts not previously available to the Latin Church

Codex 1513
(a 12th century manuscript)

3 COMPARING AND EVALUATING THE TEXTS

Erasmus carefully compared manuscripts line by line.

- He preferred the oldest and most accurate readings.
- He rejected readings he believed were later corruptions.
- He restored the text as faithfully as possible.

4 PUBLISHING THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS

In 1516, Erasmus published his Greek New Testament:

- Title: Novum Instrumentum Omne (The New Instrument Entire)
- Based on the best Greek manuscripts available to him.
- This text became known as the Textus Receptus ("Received Text").

5 ERASMUS' CONVICTION

Erasmus believed these Greek manuscripts represented the very words Jerome used for his Latin Vulgate.

- Therefore, his Textus Receptus would restore Jeremiah's translation to its purest form.
- His work laid the foundation for future Bible translations, including the King James Version.

MANUSCRIPTS USED BY ERASMUS

Erasmus used a limited number of manuscripts (about 6 Greek NT manuscripts), but they were the best available in the West.

- Codex 1513 (12th century)
- Codex 61 (11th century)
- Codex 83 (11th century)
- Minuscules and later copies

Erasmus' judgment and skill produced a text that stood the test of time.

TIMELINE AT A GLANCE

Six editions. One mission. The truth of Scripture.

Erasmus' editions remain a monument to faith, learning, and the pursuit of truth in Scripture.

HENRY LEE AND ERASMUS: A FAITHFUL DISCUSSION ON 1 JOHN 5:7-8

A Text in Question. A Friendship in Christ. A Truth Preserved.

TWO MEN. ONE PURPOSE.

In the early 1520s, English scholar and pastor Henry Lee traveled to Basel to meet the renowned humanist Desiderius Erasmus.

Both men loved the Church, cherished the Scriptures, and desired a Bible free from error.

"In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity."

— Henry Lee

HENRY LEE

ERASMUS

THE TOPIC: 1 JOHN 5:7-8

The Johannine Comma

"For there are three that bear witness in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one."

— 1 John 5:7-8 (Textus Receptus)

Erasmus had omitted the passage from his Greek New Testament, marking it in the margin as:

οὐκ εἶσιν ἐν τοῖς ἀρχαίοις manuscriptis

"It is not in the ancient manuscripts."

A RESPECTFUL BUT EARNEST DISCUSSION

HENRY LEE:

"Though it be not found in Greek, yet it is received in all Latin copies, and daily read in the Churches."

HENRY LEE:

"But good sir, the Latin Church hath it from long time. Will you omit that which so many thousands of faithful Christians have read and received?"

ERASMUS:

"I follow the rule of the ancients. I dare not put into the text what is wanting in the Greek."

ERASMUS:

"I yield to your judgment in this matter. Let it be restored in the Latin edition, with a note of explanation."

✠ Lee did not seek victory, but faithfulness.

✠ Erasmus did not seek fame, but truth. Together, they sought the glory of God.

THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED TO ERASMUS

Henry Lee showed Erasmus that 1 John 5:7-8 was found in:

- ✠ All Latin manuscripts (Vulgate)
- ✠ The ancient Fathers (Cyprian, Augustine)
- ✠ The Councils and liturgies of the Church
- ✠ Public reading in the Churches
- ✠ The consensus of the faithful for centuries

"I can produce more witnesses in one hour than Erasmus can produce reasons in a whole month."

— Henry Lee

The weight of testimony from the Church could not be ignored.

THE DECISION: IT IS ADDED

Erasmus added the Johannine Comma to his Latin New Testament in 1522.

THE IMPACT: TRUTH PRESERVED

- ✠ The Johannine Comma remained in the Latin Vulgate and the Textus Receptus.
- ✠ It was printed in the Complutensian Polyglot (1522-1527).
- ✠ It was preserved in the King James Bible (1611).
- ✠ It continues to confess the eternal Trinity: Father, Word, and Holy Spirit—Three in One.

Not by compromise, but by charity and truth, the Church was edified.

"These three are one."

— 1 John 5:7

A TIMELINE OF FAITHFULNESS

c. 1521

Henry Lee visits Erasmus in Basel to discuss concerns about the omission of 1 John 5:7-8.

Erasmus adds 1 John 5:7-8 to his second edition at the urging of Henry Lee.

1522-1527

The verse is printed in the Complutensian Polyglot—Greek, Latin, Hebrew, and Aramaic.

1611

The Textus Receptus, including 1 John 5:7-8, forms the basis of the HOLY BIBLE

THE MOZARAB RUBRICATED TRINITY PASSAGES

Ancient Spanish Manuscripts That Affirm the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity

A Powerful Witness to the Trinitarian Faith in Early Christianity

What Are the Mozarab Rubricated Trinity Passages?

They are portions of ancient Latin manuscripts from medieval Spain written in Visigothic script, in which key passages that affirm the Trinity are highlighted in red ink (rubrics) to emphasize their theological importance.

Key Features

- ✚ Written in Visigothic script
- ✚ Rubricated (highlighted in red)
- ✚ Trinitarian passages emphasized
- ✚ Used in the Mozarabic Liturgy
- ✚ Copied between the 9th–11th centuries
- ✚ Preserved in the Library of El Escorial, Spain

What Do These Passages Show?

These manuscripts show that the early Church in Spain held firmly to the doctrine of the Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

They are strong historical evidence against claims that the Trinity was a later development.

Why It Matters

- ✚ These manuscripts predate the Lateran Council (1215) by centuries.
- ✚ They prove that belief in the Trinity was widespread and deeply rooted in the Church.
- ✚ They stand in harmony with Scripture and the universal Christian faith.
- ✚ A treasure of Christian heritage from Catholic Spain.

The Mozarabic Tradition

The Mozarabs were Christians in Spain who preserved their unique liturgy, theology, and manuscripts even under Islamic rule. Their faithfulness produced some of the most beautiful and doctrinally rich manuscripts in Christian history.

*“The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God;
and yet they are not three Gods,
but one God.”*

— From an ancient Mozarabic source

A Lasting Witness

The Mozarab Rubricated Trinity Passages are a glorious testimony to the truth of the Trinity handed down through faithful generations.

One God in Three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

THE ADDITION OF BIBLE VERSE NUMBERS

MAKING GOD'S WORD EASIER TO FIND, STUDY & SHARE

For many centuries, the Bible was written in continuous text without chapters or verses. The addition of verse numbers has helped billions of people find, read, and study Scripture with greater ease.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF HOW VERSE NUMBERS WERE ADDED

BEFORE CHAPTERS AND VERSES

Before 1227

The Bible was written in continuous text with no divisions.

CHAPTERS ADDED

1227

Stephen Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury, divided the Bible into chapters.

STEPHEN LANGTON

EARLY PRINTED BIBLES

1450s

The Gutenberg Bible and early printed Bibles used chapter divisions but no verse numbers.

VERSE NUMBERS INTRODUCED

1551

Robert Estienne, a French scholar, published the first New Testament with numbered verses.

ROBERT ESTIENNE

WIDELY ADOPTED

1570s-1600s

Verse numbers were gradually adopted in most Bibles and became standard.

MODERN BIBLES

TODAY

Verse numbers are now an essential tool in study Bibles, apps, concordances, and daily reading.

WHY IT MATTERS

Easier to Find
Locate specific passages quickly.

Easier to Study
Reference, compare, and memorize Scripture.

Easier to Share
Communicate God's Word clearly with others.

A Global Blessing
Helps believers worldwide understand and apply Scripture.

John 3

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

— Psalm 119:105

THE SCHOLAR BEHIND THE VERSE NUMBERS

Robert Estienne (1503-1559)

A brilliant French scholar and printer, Estienne desired to help readers quickly find key passages. In 1551, he printed the first New Testament with numbered verses in the margins.

THE PRINTING PRESS

HOW IT MULTIPLIED GOD'S WORD

"Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee." – Psalm 119:11

A REVOLUTION IN THE SPREAD OF THE BIBLE

Before the printing press, Bibles were copied by hand—slowly and at great expense. The printing press changed history, making God's Word available to more people, in more places, than ever before.

THE INVENTION THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

Johannes Gutenberg perfected the printing press in the 1440s in Mainz, Germany.

Movable metal type, oil-based ink, and the mechanical press made mass production possible for the first time.

What once took months or years to copy by hand could now be printed in days.

The printing press was the single greatest catalyst for the spread of the Bible.

THE IMPACT OF PRINTED BIBLES

Scripture became available to ordinary people for personal reading and study.

It fueled the Reformation, missionary movements, literacy, and education.

Believers could now compare translations and return to the original truths of Scripture.

God's Word went from being scarce and hidden to being abundant and accessible.

PRINTING PRESSES SPREAD THE GOSPEL TO THE NATIONS

From Europe to the Americas, Africa, and Asia—printing carried the Bible where the hand of man could not go.

THE TRANSLATIONS OF ERASMUS: THE FOUNDATION OF LUTHER'S AND TYNDALE'S BIBLES

"We are but servants and fellow laborers with you." — 1 Corinthians 3:9

ONE GREEK TEXT – MANY TRANSLATIONS – ONE PURPOSE: TO MAKE GOD'S WORD ACCESSIBLE

1. ERASMUS: RESTORING THE GREEK

Desiderius Erasmus (1466–1536) returned "ad fontes" (to the original sources) and produced the first printed Greek New Testament (1516).

- Based on the best Greek manuscripts available
- Included a new Latin translation alongside it
- Emphasized clarity and faithfulness to the text

1516 – Erasmus' Greek New Testament and Latin Translation

2. THE BRIDGE: ERASMUS' WORK BECOMES THE STANDARD

Erasmus' Greek text and Latin translation became the most trusted foundation for Protestant reformers and translators.

- ✓ Most accurate text then available
- ✓ Printed and distributed widely across Europe
- ✓ Used in study, preaching, and translation
- ✓ A shared source for a new generation of reformers

3A. MARTIN LUTHER: THE GERMAN BIBLE

Luther used Erasmus' Greek New Testament as his primary textual source for translating the New Testament into German.

- "Erasmus is the one who has prepared the way for us all." — Martin Luther
- Published in 1522 (NT) and 1534 (complete Bible)

1522 – Luther's German New Testament

3B. WILLIAM TYNDALE: THE ENGLISH BIBLE

Tyndale used Erasmus' Greek text and Latin translation as the foundation for his English New Testament.

- "I took the New Testament out of Erasmus' Latin, and translated it as near the Greek as I could." — William Tyndale
- Published in 1526

1526 – Tyndale's English New Testament

4. THE LEGACY: IMPACT ON ENGLISH BIBLES

Tyndale's work became the foundation for all later English translations.

- Coverdale Bible (1535)
- Matthew's Bible (1537)
- Great Bible (1539)
- Geneva Bible (1560)
- King James Bible (1611)

"When we translate the Scriptures, we are not to be preferred before Erasmus."
— Martin Luther

WHAT THEY SAID

"I thank God for putting into the hands of his Church the labors of that excellent man, Erasmus." — William Tyndale

"Erasmus' Latin Bible was the milk by which I was nourished."
— John Calvin

THE CHAIN OF INFLUENCE

THE ENDURING TRUTH

God used the scholarship of Erasmus to raise up reformers who would translate His Word for the church in every nation.

"Your word is truth." — John 17:17

William Tyndale (1494–1536)

A Faithful Translator Who Gave England the Word of God

"He who spareth his own life shall lose it; and he who loseth his life for My sake and the gospel's shall save it." — William Tyndale

Who Was Tyndale?

William Tyndale was a gifted scholar and a faithful believer. He loved God's Word and had a deep burden: that ordinary people in England should be able to read the Scriptures in their own language.

Tyndale's Vision

Tyndale believed that every person should have the Bible in a language they could understand. He wanted the Scriptures to be available to all.

— William Tyndale

Opposition from Kings and the Church

Refusing to give up, Tyndale continued his work.

"Forasmuch as ye, William Tyndale, have, against the king our sovereign lord, translated into English a certain book, called the New Testament, and also other books relating to the Old Testament, contrary to the king's proclamations made against you in this behalf; you shall therefore suffer death."

1. Tyndale's Translation Methods

He carefully studied the original languages—Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

He compared many manuscripts and ancient commentaries.

He translated Who (uni), of (ex), through (per) word by word, so the meaning would be clear.

His goal was plain, faithful English that even common people could understand.

His translation—clear and faithful—helped lay the foundation for the English Bible we have today.

2. Tyndale's Early Life and Call

- Born around 1494 in a Welsh family—died 1536.
- Studied at Oxford and Cambridge Universities.
- Deeply influenced by the ideas of the Reformers.
- His heart was moved—to give the English people the Word of God.
- Left England and began translating the Bible in secret.

Tyndale began his translation work in secret in exile, far from his homeland, laboring day and night for God's Word.

3. Tyndale's Major Works (Timeline)

- † 1522 – New Testament (Printed in Worms, Germany)
- † 1535 – Partial translation of the Old Testament (Pentateuch) published
- † 1526 – Portions of the Old Testament, including Jonah, released
- † 1534–1536 – Full Old Testament completed (Not published in his lifetime)

Tyndale's Lasting Legacy

Tyndale's Bible translation became the foundation for future English Bibles; his words live on in thousands of churches, and his dedication continues to inspire many.

4. Circulation and Impact of Tyndale's Bible

Tyndale's New Testament spread widely across England.

It is estimated that 75–85% of Tyndale's New Testament circulated among the people, greatly affecting the hearts of many, stirring their faith, and leading them to embrace the truth of the Bible.

5. Persecution and Martyrdom

- † 1524 – Forced to flee England due to persecution (and went into exile).
- † 1535 – Betrayed and arrested in Belgium.

He was tried, condemned, and strangled. His last words were a testimony of faith:

"Lord, open the King of England's eyes."

6. Tyndale's Final Prayer — His Last Request

Before he was martyred, Tyndale prayed for the English people:

"Lord, open the King of England's eyes. I pray that the King may know Your truth and rule in righteousness to lead this nation according to Your will."

"The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever." — Isaiah 40:8
"Who are these that fly like a cloud and like doves to their windows?" — Song of Solomon 2:16

WILLIAM TYNDALE'S REVISIONS

A PIONEER OF BIBLE TRANSLATION AND TRUTH

William Tyndale (1494?–1536) believed that everyone should be able to read God's Word in their own language. His revisions to the Latin Bible and his translation of the New Testament brought clarity, faithfulness, and power to the Scriptures.

"If God spare my life, ere many years I will cause a boy that driveth the plough shall know more of the Scripture than thou dost." — William Tyndale

WHO WAS WILLIAM TYNDALE?

- ✦ Born in Gloucestershire, England.
- ✦ Scholar, linguist, and passionate believer.
- ✦ Opposed the corruption and inaccessibility of the Church's Latin Vulgate.
- ✦ Determined to translate the Bible into English from the original languages: Greek and Hebrew.
- ✦ Martyred in 1536 for his faith and commitment to God's Word.

TYNDALE'S MISSION

"I defy the pope, and all his laws: if God spare my life, ere many years I will cause a boy that driveth the plough shall know more of the Scripture than thou dost."

His mission was to give England a Bible that was accurate, understandable, and available.

WHAT TYNDALE REVISED AND IMPROVED

FOCUS AREA	WHAT TYNDALE DID	EXAMPLE	IMPACT
 TRANSLATED FROM THE ORIGINAL LANGUAGES	Tyndale translated the New Testament from the Greek Textus Receptus and the Old Testament from Hebrew.	Latin Vulgate: "poenitentiam agite" Tyndale: "Repent ye" (Matthew 3:2) Meaning made clear to the people.	He made God's Word accessible in clear, faithful English.
 CLARIFIED MEANING AND LANGUAGE	He used simple, strong English that ordinary people could understand.	Latin Vulgate: "caritas" (charity) Tyndale: "love" Clearer and more personal.	The Scriptures spoke directly to people's hearts.
 IMPROVED ACCURACY AND FAITHFULNESS	He corrected errors in the Latin Vulgate and stayed faithful to the original meaning of Scripture.	Latin Vulgate: "baptizate" (passive) Tyndale: "baptize" (active) Reflects the true intent of the text.	His work set a higher standard for Bible translation.
 RESTORED DOCTRINAL TRUTH	His translation emphasized justification by faith and other truths that had been obscured in the Vulgate.	Galatians 2:16 Tyndale: "A man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law."	He helped shift hearts back to the truths of Scripture.
 MADE THE BIBLE ACCESSIBLE TO ALL	He wanted every person—not just priests and scholars—to read and know God's Word.	Tyndale's Bible was printed in English so that all could read it in their homes and churches.	It empowered ordinary people to grow in faith.

THE IMPACT OF TYNDALE'S REVISIONS

- ✦ His work laid the foundation for all later English Bibles, including the King James Bible.
- ✦ Over 80% of the New Testament and about 60% of the Old Testament in the KJV are from Tyndale's translation.
- ✦ He introduced powerful English words and phrases that are still used today.
- ✦ His revisions helped ignite the Reformation and change the course of history.

"The Scriptures are the true and certain Word of God. We ought not to be ashamed to confess the truth and open it to the people."
— William Tyndale

HIS PRAYER

"Lord, open the King of England's eyes."
May God raise up more laborers who will faithfully translate and proclaim His Word.

TYNDALE'S BIBLE

"Lord, open the King of England's eyes."
Tyndale prayed earnestly for King Henry VIII to allow the English Bible. Though his prayer was not answered in his lifetime, it was answered through those who came after him.

THE BIBLE THAT CHANGED ENGLAND

Tyndale's New Testament (1525) and later editions (1534, 1535, 1536) were smuggled into England in great numbers. They were read in secret, cherished by believers, and used by God to transform hearts and a nation.

c. 1494 – 1536

Tyndale was the first to translate the New Testament from the original Greek into English (1526) and much of the Old Testament (1530–1535). His translation laid the foundation for every English Bible that followed, including the King James Bible.

"If God spare my life, ere many years I will cause a boy that driveth the plow to know more of the Scripture than thou dost."

TYNDALE'S WORK LIVED ON...

Nearly 84% of the New Testament and over 76% of the Old Testament in the King James Bible are based on Tyndale's translation.

THE WESTMINSTER CONFESSION OF FAITH (1646)

Adopted by the Westminster Assembly of Divines, this confession upholds the complete inspiration and inerrancy of Scripture and affirms the King James Bible as the received text for the English Church.

- ✓ Teaches that the Holy Scriptures are the Word of God, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and "infallible rule of faith and obedience." (WCF 1.2)
- ✓ Affirms the preservation of Scripture in the original languages and the faithful translation of God's Word into the English tongue. (WCF 1.8)
- ✓ Declares that all doctrine must be proved by Scripture alone.

THE LONDON BAPTIST CONFESSION OF FAITH (1689)

A landmark confession of Particular Baptists that embraces the authority of the King James Bible as the perfect and sufficient rule of faith.

- ✓ Affirms that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are "the Word of God, the only rule of faith and practice." (LBCF 1)
- ✓ Receives the King James Bible as the standard English translation, faithful and accurate.
- ✓ Commits the church to the pure preaching and careful study of God's Word.

From Tyndale's sacrifice to the King's commission,
God preserved His Word through faithful servants for our edification and eternal hope.

HOW THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS BECAME THE FOUNDATION OF COUNTLESS TRANSLATIONS AROUND THE WORLD

The Textus Receptus (TR), completed by Erasmus in 1516 and refined by Stephanus in 1550, was the primary Greek New Testament used for centuries.

It became the basis for most traditional and modern Bible translations.

THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS (TR)

- Compiled by Erasmus (1516)
- Refined by Stephanus (1550)
- Based on Byzantine Majority Text manuscripts
- Used for the King James Bible (1611)
- The foundation for most traditional Bible translations for over 400 years.

St. Catherine's Monastery,
Mount Sinai, Egypt
Founded c. 560 AD

A priceless treasure of God's Word hidden for centuries in a remote monastery—rediscovered in the 19th century

Tischendorf was allowed to remove portions of the manuscript. Over several trips, he transported it to Europe.

PRESENTED TO THE WORLD

The manuscript was studied, photographed, and published in a monumental edition (Codex Sinaiticus Petropolitanus) beginning in 1862.

Contains 759 leaves (about 1,500 pages).

Written on high-quality parchment in 3 columns per page.

— 2 Timothy 3:16

GOD'S WORD HAS BEEN FAITHFULLY PRESERVED SO THAT WE MAY HAVE LIFE IN HIS WORD.
FROM THE 4TH CENTURY TO TODAY—HIS WORD ENDURES FOREVER.

THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS (TR)

The traditional text underlying the King James Bible and most translations for over 400 years.

TEXTUS RECEPTUS vs. VATICANUS & SINAITICUS

THREE MAJOR WITNESSES TO THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT

All three are valuable, but they come from very different times, places, and historical circumstances, which helps explain their textual differences.

CODEx VATICANUS (B)
4th Century
(c. 325–350 AD)

CODEx SINAITICUS (X)
4th Century
(c. 330–360 AD)

1. THE TEXTUS RECEPTUS (TR)

- DATE: 1516 AD (compiled by Erasmus)
Printed editions: 1520–1611 (Elzevir)
- PLACE: Western Europe
- MANUSCRIPTS USED: Byzantine Majority Text manuscripts (mostly from 12th–15th centuries)
- TEXT TYPE: Byzantine Text-Type
- CHARACTERISTICS:
 - More verses and readings
 - Smoother, more traditional readings
 - Reflects the text used in the churches of the Byzantine Empire
- INFLUENCE: Basis for the King James Bible (1611) and most traditional translations

2. CODEx VATICANUS (B)

- DATE: c. 325–350 AD
- PLACE: Likely produced in Egypt (Alexandrian region)
- TEXT TYPE: Alexandrian Text-Type
- CHARACTERISTICS:
 - Fewer verses and readings
 - More difficult, less harmonized text
 - Often shorter and more abrupt in style
 - Considered one of the oldest and most important manuscripts
- CONTENTS: Almost the entire Bible: Old Testament (Septuagint) and New Testament

WRITTEN UNDER AN ARIAN POLITICAL REGIME

During the reign of Emperor Constantine and his successors (Constantius II, Valens), Arianism was officially promoted (c. 331–361 AD).

Many Arian bishops and scribes held positions of influence in the church and had access to resources and libraries.

This raises legitimate questions about possible doctrinal or textual influence on manuscripts produced during this period.

3. CODEx SINAITICUS (X)

- DATE: c. 330–360 AD
- PLACE: Likely produced in Egypt or Palestine
- TEXT TYPE: Alexandrian Text-Type
- CHARACTERISTICS:
 - Fewer verses and readings
 - More difficult, less harmonized text
 - Often shorter and more abrupt in style
 - Contains some unique readings not found in later manuscripts
- CONTENTS: Most of the Bible: Old Testament (Septuagint) and New Testament, plus additional early Christian writings (Epistle of Barnabas, Shepherd of Hermas)

WRITTEN UNDER AN ARIAN POLITICAL REGIME

Produced during the same Arian-influenced period under Constantine and his Arian-leaning successors.

Arianism denied the full deity of Christ. Many historians believe this climate could have influenced what was copied, preserved, or even omitted.

KEY TEXTUAL DIFFERENCES (EXAMPLES)

PASSAGE	TEXTUS RECEPTUS (Byzantine Majority)	VATICANUS (B) (Alexandrian)	SINAITICUS (X) (Alexandrian)	NOTES
Matthew 28:19 Baptismal Formula	"...baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."	"...baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."	Same as Vaticanus	TR has "Holy Ghost" (VS) – not in B or X
John 5:7 Pool of Bethesda	Present	Not Present	Not Present	Story of the pool is not in B or X
1 John 5:7–8 The Comma Johanneum	"There are three that bear record in heaven..."	Not Present	Not Present	Not in B or X
Mark 16:9–20 Long Ending	Present	Not Present	Not Present	Shorter ending in B and X (16:8)
Luke 22:43–44 (Agony in Gethsemane)	Present	Not Present	Not Present	Not in earliest Alexandrian witnesses

Note: These are examples only. Thousands of smaller wording differences exist.

THE ARIAN POLITICAL CONTEXT (4TH CENTURY)

- Constantius II (337–361 AD) – Arian emperor who banned orthodox bishops and promoted Arian doctrine.
- Valens (364–378 AD) – Strong Arian supporter who persecuted orthodox Christians.
- Arian bishops and theologians were often placed in key positions in major sees and scriptoria.
- Access to imperial resources allowed Arian scribes to produce and distribute manuscripts widely.

History shows that religions and rulers sometimes influence what is written, preserved, or even destroyed.

WHY THIS MATTERS

- ✓ The TR reflects the text preserved in the churches through the centuries.
- ✓ Vaticanus and Sinaiticus are earlier, but were produced in a time of Arian dominance.
- ✓ Textual differences often involve verses that support the deity of Christ, the Trinity, and Christ's atonement.
- ✓ We must weigh both age and doctrinal climate when evaluating manuscripts.

"Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus."

— 2 Timothy 1:13

GOD'S WORD HAS BEEN PRESERVED THROUGH MANY HANDS, DESPITE HUMAN FLAW AND POLITICAL PRESSURE.

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." — Psalm 119:105

THE BIBLE REFERENCE TABLES OF EUSEBIUS

The First Known Systematic Cross-Reference to Scripture

Created by Eusebius of Caesarea (c. 260–339 AD)

Eusebius was a bishop, historian, and scholar who devoted his life to preserving Christian truth. In his monumental work, the Ecclesiastical History, he included detailed Bible reference tables to help readers find related passages throughout the Scriptures — centuries before modern study Bibles existed.

Eusebius organized key words or themes and listed every verse in the Old and New Testaments where they appear.

PRISCILLIAN'S BIBLE REFERENCE SYSTEM

A PIONEERING METHOD FOR ACCURATE SCRIPTURE CITATION

Priscillian (c. 340–385 AD) – Spanish bishop, theologian and champion of apostolic truth

PRISCILLIAN

c. 340 – 385 AD
Bishop of Ávila (Hispania)
Teacher, Writer, Martyr

Priscillian developed one of the earliest known systematic methods for referencing and organizing Scripture in Latin Christian literature.

THE SYSTEM PRISCILLIAN USED

(LIBER)

Named the biblical book.

Example:
Liber Iohannis
(Book of John)

SECTION (CAPUT)

Divided the book into larger sections or chapters.

Example:
Caput V
(Chapter 5)

VERSE (VERSUS)

Cited the specific verse within the chapter.

Example:
Versus VII
(Verse 7)

RANGE (A VERSU ...
USQUE AD)

Indicated a range of verses when quoting multiple verses.

Example:
A Versu VII usque ad VIII
(From verse 7 to verse 8)

WHY IT MATTERED

Enabled precise citation of Scripture in teaching, debate, and polemics.

Demonstrated the authority of Scripture over tradition, heresy and human opinion.

Provided clarity and unity in a time of doctrinal confusion and division.

Helped preserve the text and meaning of the Bible for future generations.

EXAMPLE: 1 JOHN 5:7–8

- Priscillian's Citation:
Liber Iohannis, Caput V, Versus VII usque ad VIII
- Modern Equivalent:
1 John 5:7–8

This passage affirms the Trinity: Father, Word, and Holy Spirit are one in essence and divine unity.

“Tres sunt qui testimonium dant in coelo: Pater, Verbum, et Spiritus Sanctus: et hi tres unum sunt.”

– Priscillian, Tractate 1, citing 1 John 5:7–8
(Liber Iohannis, Caput V, Versus VII usque ad VIII)

EVIDENCE OF HIS SYSTEM

Found in his authentic writings:

- Tractate 1*
- Tractate 2*
- Liber Apologeticus*

Manuscripts show consistent use of Liber (Book), Caput (Chapter), and Versus (Verse) to identify Scripture.

A LEGACY THAT LASTED

Priscillian's reference method was adopted by many later Latin writers and became a standard system for biblical citation in the Western Church for centuries.

A FAITHFUL WITNESS

Because he defended the authority of Scripture and apposed heresy, Priscillian and his followers were condemned and martyred at Trier in 385 AD.

Priscillian's Bible reference system reflects his deep reverence for Scripture and his commitment to truth.

SOLA SCRIPTURA – SCRIPTURE ALONE AS THE AUTHORITATIVE STANDARD.

AUGUSTINE

354–430 AD
Bishop of Hippo
Doctor of the Church

Author of On the Trinity, one of the most influential theological works in Church history, composed to defend the Christian faith against heresy and to explain the mystery of the Triune God.

AUGUSTINE'S TRACT ON THE JOHANNINE COMMA

A FOUNDATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE TRINITY

In his treatise On the Trinity, Augustine explicitly cites
1 John 5:7–8 — the Johannine Comma — as authentic Scripture to prove the doctrine of the Trinity.

AUGUSTINE'S QUOTE – ON THE TRINITY 4.15.23

“For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

— Augustine, On the Trinity 4.15.23
(PL 42: 959)

THE IMPORTANCE OF AUGUSTINE'S WITNESS

Augustine quotes 1 John 5:7–8 in support of the full doctrine of the Trinity.

He treats the passage as inspired Scripture and foundational to Christian faith.

Written around 400 AD, Augustine's work reflects the use of the Comma in the Western Church.

His citation is evidence that this verse was received, read, and trusted by one of the Church's greatest theologians.

FATHERS AND HISTORICAL WITNESSES

Early Christian writers and historical allusions who cite or allude to 1 John 5:7–8 (the Johannine Comma) in support of the Trinity.

Theophilus of Antioch (AD 169–183)

Lucian in Philopatri (c. AD 125–180)

Cyprian (AD 200–258)

Priscillian (AD 340–385)

Augustine (AD 354–430)

Chrysostom (AD 357–407)

Fulgentius (c. AD 467–533)

and others

“In essentials, unity;
in non-essentials, liberty;
in all things, charity.”

— Augustine

Augustine's clear and direct citation of 1 John 5:7–8 demonstrates that the Johannine Comma was known, read, and honored in the Church more than a millennium ago.

PRISCILLIAN'S QUOTES

OF THE JOHANNINE COMMA (1 JOHN 5:7-8)

AN EARLY AND POWERFUL WITNESS TO THE TRINITARIAN TEXT

PRISCILLIAN'S TESTIMONY – DIRECT QUOTES

Priscillian repeatedly quotes 1 John 5:7-8 in his writings, affirming the Trinity.

PRISCILLIAN

c. 340 – 385 AD

A Spanish bishop, ascetic theologian and reformer who strongly defended the authority of Scripture and the Trinity. His writings, composed in Latin, are among the earliest known sources to quote 1 John 5:7-8 in its full Trinitarian form.

PERSECUTED FOR THE TRUTH

Priscillian and his followers were accused of heresy, magic and disobedience to Church authorities. In 385 AD, they were condemned and executed at Trier by order of Bishop Idatius of Mérida.

“We have not followed the errors of men, but the truth which I learned from the elders.”
— Priscillian (Tractate 1)

EARLY & INDEPENDENT WITNESS

Priscillian's quotes predate major medieval controversies and show the Comma was received in the Latin Church.

TRINITARIAN FAITH

He used this verse to defend the full deity and unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

CONSISTENT & CLEAR

In every place he quotes 1 John 5:7-8, Priscillian includes the Comma without variation, showing it was part of the Scripture he trusted and taught.

Priscillian stands among the earliest Latin fathers to quote 1 John 5:7-8 in full.

His witness confirms that the Johannine Comma was known, read, and used in the Church from an early date.

JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

THE GOLDEN-MOUTH OF THE CHURCH

PREACHER • BIBLE TEACHER • DEFENDER OF THE FAITH

JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

c. 347 – 407 AD

Archbishop of Constantinople

John Chrysostom (c. 347–407 AD) was Archbishop of Constantinople and one of the most influential Church Fathers.

His eloquence earned him the title “Chrysostom,” meaning “golden-mouthed.”

He was a powerful preacher, a champion of Scripture, and a bold defender of the truth against error.

HIS MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Prolific preacher: over 700 homilies survive to this day.

Wrote commentaries on many books of the Bible.

His teachings shaped worship, doctrine, and Christian living.

Called the people to holiness, generosity, and love.

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

Born in Antioch, Syria, to a Christian family of high character.

Studied Scripture deeply and was ordained as a priest.

Renowned for his preaching, especially his expositions on the Bible.

Became Archbishop of Constantinople in 398 AD.

Defended the poor, confronted corruption, and stood for biblical truth.

Exiled by opposition, he died in exile in 407 AD.

“The Word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword.”

– John Chrysostom

WHY HIS ALLUSION MATTERS

- ✓ Shows that this Trinitarian testimony was known and used in the Church by the early 5th century.
- ✓ Confirms the early Church’s belief in the triune God—Father, Word, and Holy Spirit.
- ✓ Supports the authenticity and authority of the traditional text of Scripture.

HIS ALLUSION TO THE JOHANNINE COMMA

John Chrysostom alluded to the full Trinitarian text in 1 John 5:7–8 in his preaching and writings.

*“For there are three that testify:
the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost:
and these three are one.”*

– John Chrysostom
Homily 14 on 1 John 5:7 (c. 400 AD)

Chrysostom’s words echo the exact phrasing of 1 John 5:7–8, which includes the testimony of the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit—three who are one.

A FAITHFUL WITNESS TO SCRIPTURE

He preached throughout the Scriptures, especially the New Testament.

He defended the deity of Christ and the full truth of the Godhead.

He used Scripture as the final authority in doctrine and life.

He stood firm against heresy and compromise in the Church.

He remains one of the most quoted Church Fathers of all time.

The Church honors him as “Chrysostom” – the Golden-Mouth. His voice still speaks through his writings, calling believers to know the Scriptures and live for Christ.

JOHN CHRYSOSTOM LIVED AND TAUGHT
THE INSPIRATION AND AUTHORITY OF GOD’S WORD.

“Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.”

THE PERICOPE ADULTERAE IN GREEK MANUSCRIPTS

— How Many Greek Witnesses Contain John 7:53–8:11? —

AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO
354–430

1) THE GREEK MANUSCRIPT WITNESSES

Greek continuous-text manuscripts containing all or part of the passage: about 1,495

Greek lectionaries containing the passage: about 495

Total Greek witnesses containing some or all of the passage: about 1,990

These totals are approximate and include full and partial witnesses.

EXAMPLE OF A GREEK MANUSCRIPT
Many manuscripts mark the passage with asterisks or obeli and place it in different locations.

2) TEXTUAL NOTES

Some manuscripts mark the passage with asterisks or obeli.

Some place it after John 7:36, at the end of John, or after Luke 21:38.

Most Greek manuscripts that contain the passage are later Byzantine witnesses.

The earliest surviving Greek manuscript to include the passage is Codex Bezae (5th century).

3) AUGUSTINE ON THE OMISSION OF THE PASSAGE

“Certain men of little faith, or rather enemies of the true faith, fearing, I suppose, lest their wives should be given impunity in sinning, removed from their manuscripts the Lord’s act of forgiveness toward the adulteress.”

— Augustine, De adulterinis coniugiis 2.6–7

4) WHAT AUGUSTINE MEANT

Augustine believed some copyists or readers were troubled by the story’s mercy toward the adulterous woman.

He argued that this discomfort led some to remove the passage from certain manuscripts.

His comment is one of the most important early explanations for why the passage was absent in some copies.

The Pericope Adulterae was absent in some early copies, yet it was preserved in a large number of Greek witnesses and remained widely known in the Church.

“We do not believe the Gospel to be injured, because, in certain copies, which are more ancient, this narrative is not found. For we believe it to be in the Gospel, but not in all copies.” – Augustine, On the Trinity 4.15.24 (c. 400 AD)

DEFENDER OF THE TRADITION HE RECEIVED

DIDYMUUS THE BLIND
c. 313 – c. 398 AD

Teacher in Alexandria
Champion of Biblical Truth

– Didymus
(On the Trinity 1.2)

Didymus the Blind (c. 313–c. 398 AD), a revered teacher in Alexandria, included the story of the woman taken in adultery in his commentary on John, showing it was part of the Gospel text he read and taught.

– Didymus the Blind
Commentary on John 7:53–8:11

In his commentary on John, Didymus explicitly includes John 7:53–8:11, showing this passage was in the Greek manuscripts he used and the text he taught.

The Pericope Adulterae was present in the Greek manuscripts known and used in Alexandria during the 4th century.

Esteemed church fathers like Didymus accepted and taught this passage as inspired Scripture.

Its inclusion in diverse textual traditions across regions and time confirms its authenticity.

The passage aligns with the character of Christ and the message of the Gospel.

WHAT IS THE PESHITTA?

The Peshitta is the ancient Syriac translation of the Scriptures, widely used by the Syriac-speaking Christian churches from the earliest centuries.

WHAT IS THE PESHITTA?

An Ancient Syriac Translation

The Peshitta ("simple" or "common") is the Syriac translation of the Old and New Testaments.

Antiquity

Its roots go back to the 2nd century A.D., and the form we have was established mainly between the 4th and 5th centuries.

Use in the Church

It was the standard Bible of the Syriac churches: the Syriac Orthodox Church, the Syriac Catholic Church, the Church of the East (Assyrian Church), and other Christian communities of the Middle East.

Area of Use

Used from Syria, Mesopotamia, and Persia to India and beyond.

Language

Translated mainly from the Greek texts into Syriac, the Aramaic language spoken by the Lord Jesus and His disciples.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PESHITTA

A faithful and literal translation that reflects the structure of the Greek words.

A uniform text that was read in the liturgy, preaching, and teaching.

Independent of the Greek textual tradition, which makes it a valuable witness that is independent of the ancient biblical text.

IMPORTANCE

The Peshitta is one of the oldest and most reliable witnesses to the Scriptures of the New Testament. It confirms many readings of the Greek text and preserves very ancient, independent textual traditions from other early translations.

WHAT COPIES DO WE HAVE TODAY?

Although the original autographs are lost, we have thousands of manuscripts of the Peshitta, which span more than 1,600 years of history.

MANUSCRIPT EVIDENCE OF THE PESHITTA

Ancient Manuscripts (5th–7th Centuries)

We have manuscripts dating from the 5th century, such as the Curetonian Codex (5th century) and the Ambrosian Codex (5th century).

Medieval Manuscripts (8th–14th Centuries)

Hundreds of complete and partial manuscripts of the Old and New Testaments are preserved in monasteries and churches.

Later Manuscripts (15th–19th Centuries)

Thousands of more recent manuscripts ensure the continued transmission of the text.

Total Number

It is estimated that more than 3,000 Syriac manuscripts exist that contain parts or all of the New Testament, and thousands more of the Old Testament.

Where They Are Preserved

Libraries and collections in the Vatican, Mount Sinai, Great Britain, France, Germany, the United States, and monasteries in the Middle East and India.

EXAMPLES OF PESHITTA MANUSCRIPTS

CURETONIAN CODEX (5th Century)

One of the oldest manuscripts of the New Testament in Syriac.

AMBROSIAN CODEX (5th Century)

LATER SYRIAC MANUSCRIPT (12th Century)

An example of the many medieval manuscripts that transmit the text of the Peshitta.

IN SUMMARY

The Peshitta is an ancient translation, widely used and textually reliable. The thousands of manuscripts we have today demonstrate its continuous preservation and its great value for understanding the original biblical text.
