

Woodland Painted Petals Anomatheca laxa

Showy, 1" deep coral flowers on wiry stems among deep green, iris-like foliage 8"-10" high in March and April. Goes dormant in summer, reseeds, and will return from dormant corms in late winter. Tough and drought tolerant. Part shade. Well drained soil.