

PALE PURPLE CONEFLOWER

Echinacea pallida

The stout stems on this native coneflower bear flowerheads that have slender lavender petals which droop from the spiny cone-shaped center. 2'-4' tall – grow in full sun, well-drained soil. Drought tolerant once established. Beneficial to bees & butterflies. Perennial.