

Jitsuko's Star Ligularia

Farfugium japonicum
'Jitsuko's Star'

A low mounding, evergreen perennial for shady locations with round, green tropical-looking foliage topped with 2' flower spikes of magnificent double yellow, daisy-like flowers in the fall. This Ligularia grows into a 15" x 20" mound and contrasts beautifully with ferns and other fine-textured plants in a shade garden.

Heidi Sheesley of TreeSearch Farms