

'Drunk on Purple' Plum

Prunus x

The original 'Drunk on Purple' Plum was found in the wild in Washington County. We believe it to be a relative of the native Chickasaw plum. It has proven to be extremely tough & holds its purple leaf color all through our hot summers. Light pink flowers adorn the stems in early spring before the foliage comes out. Ornamental, non fruiting.