

Christmas Fern

Polystichum acrostichoides

This fern is native in many areas east of the Rockies – one of our top American ferns. It was used for Christmas decorations by our ancestors. In nature, it grows equally well in rich moist soils, slopes or rocky areas. Plant in shade, 12"-24", evergreen, spreading.