

Hardy Calathea

Calathea louisae

An unusual clump-forming perennial producing lance-shaped, dark green foliage with silver painted centers. The undersides of the leaves are a dusty purple. Root hardy – plant in full shade to filtered sun. Blooms small white cone shaped flowers that normally don't rise above the foliage. 2'x2'. Moist, well drained soil.