

High Fragrance Camellia

Camellia japonica hybrid

‘High Fragrance’ is a gorgeous camellia that has fragrant blooms reminiscent of an antique rose. Large, semi-double pink flowers – upright growth habit that looks best trained into a small tree. Scented blooms start appearing late January into February. Camellias like partial sun, organically rich soil and good drainage.