

Blue Daze

Evolvulus glomeratus

Small gray-green leaves are a pleasing contrast to the 1" wide sky blue flowers – the flowers open in the morning and close in the evening. They will stay open longer if given some afternoon shade. Beautiful in borders, hanging baskets and containers. Averages 12"-14" tall. Sun or partial sun. Perennial most years. Cut back hard in spring for lush growth.