

Fishtail Fern

Nephrolepis falcata 'Furcans'

Fishtail Fern is a large variety among the Nephrolepis members – 3' long fronds that are graceful & quite unique. The ends of the feather-like fronds usually split into two, resembling the tail of a fish. Makes an excellent large basket or pot specimen. Protect from hard freezes. Shade to partial shade. Regular watering.