

O'Rourke Fig

O' Rourke fig was developed by Ed O'Rourke in 1960 and released through the LSU Agriculture Center fig program. O'Rourke is a cross between a Celeste and a Capri fig from California. It has a long neck with tan to brown skin and the flesh is a reddish light tan. The leaves have 5-7 lobes. Partial closed eye when ripe. Ripens July, August in zones 7-10.