

Neches River Rose Mallow

Hibiscus dasycalyx

This rare native Texas mallow is a joy to have in any garden. It has threadlike foliage and 3"-4" white flowers with deep pink to maroon throats.

Upright, tight growth habit . Blooms May to October. A terrific water-smart plant that tolerates wet or drought conditions. Full sun, 3'-4' tall.

Perennial.