

Moy Grande Hibiscus

Hibiscus sp. 'Moy Grande'

An unbelievable mallow developed by Ying Doon Moy, a research horticulturist at the San Antonio Botanical Center. This spectacular flower is the largest open-faced hibiscus flower in the world! The plant produces huge, 12" rose-pink flowers from May to October. Sun. Grows 4'-6' tall

Heidi Sheesley of TreeSearch Farms