

Seashore Mallow (White or Pink)

Kosteletskyia virginica

This is a rare and hard to find native mallow. It is found along fresh or salty marshes near coastal areas. This selection has 1" soft pink blooms . It forms a thick, full shrub 3'-4' tall and produces a multitude of 2" bright white flowers mid-summer. Grows happily in full sun in most gardens and is at home in bogs.