

Texas Lantana

Lantana horrida

Our native Texas lantana blooms spring through fall. Profuse flower heads are a bright combo of yellow & orange.

Foliage is aromatic – offensive to some, fragrant to others!

Butterflies LOVE lantana.

Full to partial sun. Prune back to the “nub” each winter. You can also prune during the growing season to keep it more controlled. 2’ x 2’ or bigger.