

Yellow Lycoris

Lycoris aurea

Lycoris foliage

Bright and shining yellow, the spidery flowers of Lycoris face upwards. As with all Lycoris, these require a hot dry resting period during summer to promote flowering. Strap-shaped green foliage disappears in July; the flower spike burst forth in August. Lycoris are splendid autumn-flowering bulbs when their requirements are met. Great cut flower.