

Giant Variegated Mondo Ophiopogon sp. 'Giant'

Giant variegated mondo is a striking accent in any shade garden. It's evergreen with white, cream and green variegation, slowly growing into a 3'x3' clump. Tough and drought tolerant once established with an added bonus of stalks of white flowers in the summer. Rare and unique – not available in the trade. This is NOT a liriopel!