

Blue Lips Shrub

Sclerochiton harveyanus

A lovely shrubby perennial with blue lipped flowers and glossy green foliage which is small and delicate looking. Numerous flowers in the summer are lightly fragrant and attractive to pollinating insects. Fast-growing – best for a semi-shaded area of the garden. Likes a rich compost soil mix and well drained soil. Originates from Africa. Great for containers. Takes well to pruning. Protect in a hard freeze.